Learning Outcome :

The workshop was held in the Seminar Hall of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies – PG Block on 10th September, 2010 (9:00 am to 4:30 pm). Students of MBA –3rd Sem. attended the workshop along with some of the faculty members.

The students interacted with Mr. Ramakar Jha. This workshop provided in-depth knowledge about fundamental analysis. Mr. Ramakar Jha presented a presentation in the seminar hall after providing a brief discussion on the various finance terminologies that are going to be used in the discussion.

A good discussion about the Indian Financial System took place in the workshop. Students understood the various securities used in the money market and capital market for raising the short term and long term financial needs of the organizations respectively.

In the evening session, the process of how to invest and where to invest was showcased. Students felt that the workshop will be a great help to them in understanding the concepts of financial management as well as in understanding the behavior pattern of financial market.
