REPORT OF THE EVENT

Volunteer Selection ahead of Commonwealth Games

Responding to the increasing demand of volunteers for the upcoming commonwealth games, senior officials conducted a seminar at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies. Selection committee consisted of Mr. Ajay pandey, chief editor Rajdhani today, Mr. Chandrabhushan Singh sub-editor Rajdhani today. Among others were Mr. Sanjay Mehandi, Mr Jasmeet and senior faculty members of the college. Addressing to the students Mr. Jasmeet voiced the concern for their participation in this moment of national pride and asked them to come forward to manifest their talent in various cultural events like singing, group dancing which would be a part of the opening ceremony as well. He also presented it as a learning opportunity as students would get to interact with various people during guest reception and other related works. Selection committee felt highly encouraged seeing the students turning up in huge numbers. Selection procedure consisted of form fill-up following which was a personal interview. Though Mr. Jasmeet refused to disclose the criteria for volunteer selection yet assured of selecting 80-100 of more than 500 students who filled the form. Selection committee assured of bearing entire expenses of these volunteers on food, travel and other affairs related to Commonwealth Games. Mr. Jasmeet felt particularly excited on receiving hundreds of forms from the student and promised on the part of Commonwealth Games committee for providing certificates to the selected candidates.
