Special Invitee	:	Mr. Santosh Yengkokpam

Objectives

1. To sensitize the Students & Faculty towards North East Culture & Community
2. To create the opportunity for cultural interaction between students from North & East

Report

Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized an event on the topic "Sensitization Towards North East Culture & Community" on 04th December 2014 at the institute premises for the students and staff members. The event started with the overview of the program given by Dr. Ajay Pratap Singh. It was followed by deliberations by Prof. Rajesh Bajaj, Chief Event Convener. He emphasized that need of the hour is to remove the ignorance of common people towards rich North East Culture. He suggested that more and more exchange programs should be started to bridge this gap.

Mr. Santosh Yengkokpam, discussed his experiences based on his interactions with the people of Delhi during last few years. He told the gathering that he found no untoward behaviour of his classmates and society towards him while studying in Delhi, although he had different perception when he was in Manipur (native place), before he visited Delhi. He raised the question with the audience that when there is no difference of behaviour towards them in reality then who are the miscreants interested in creating such difference amongst the people from different regions & why?

Integral to the event, was a display of the paintings to portray the North East Culture & Community. The painting that attracted the maximum attention of the audience was that of an elephant and the man from North East in dilemma to search out the reasons for suspicious behaviour by certain vested interests towards their community.
