On 24th April 2015: Event Club of Journalism and Mass Communication department, Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized Udaan-Nayi Manzil ki on 24th April 2015. Udaan was an initiative by the Event Club of Journalism and Mass Communication students to put a step ahead towards the encouragement to underprivileged and special children. It provided a platform to perform and showcase their talents in front of the audience. The event began with 'lighting the lamp', Saraswati Vandana and deliberations from various dignitaries comprising Dr. A.K. Rathore, Director, TIAS, Mr. M. S Bitta, Chief Guest, chairman of the All-India Anti-Terrorist Front, and former chief of the Indian Youth Congress, Prof. Rajesh Bajaj, Chief Convener Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies.

Chief Guest addressed the students, "to improve the country we must improve the politics and the ZINDAA SHAHEED encouraged and embraced the audience and the journalism and mass communication to 'never hesitate to die' for their nation and advised the students to use their pen as a AK-47". Dr. A.K.Rathore, Director-TIAS congratulated' "BJMC Event club members for organizing an event for social cause and providing underprivileged students a platform to showcase their talents. He also spoke about the need of being multi dimensional in any professional career".

Udaan commenced with mesmerizing dance performance by Event Club student and followed by its special attraction Asmita Theatre Group (FAME OF RAANJHANA MOVIE) "DASTAK" play. ASMITA Theatre Group too had a discussion with the audience where Shilpi Marwah said, "The purpose of our play will not be fulfilled until and unless you will not think about Women safety and empowerment and It's a pleasure to be a part of this initiative, and would like to come again with more plays to serve the people". Indeed the group acted as a vessel blower and eye opener for the audience.

Udaan is a special initiative taken by Event club students where children from 5 years to 18 years participated in different events. NGOS's such as Ex IAS Officer Kiran Bedi's Navjyoti Indian Foundation, Pehal, Balvihar Children Home and Tecnia Group of Institutions Ashtavakra School of Rehabilitation Sciences came and fully participated in the event.

The Audience witnessed a lot of performances and participations in various events like Painting competition, 'Guess what?' Disco Deewane, Quiz Competition, Fancy Dress and Udaan Shehzaada & Shehzaadi. The event ended on a musical note, with the performance of Punjabi Singer Sonu Mann and with the Prize distribution ceremony, which was not only for the winners but for the participants as well.

Navjyoti Indian Foundation on praising the effort said, "It was a very good initiative taken by the institute, and the kids are very happy after getting a chance to showcase their talent and prove that they are no more less than the privileged one". On the success of the event Convener of the event, Ms. Nivedita Sharma said, "I would like to thank all my sponsors, media partners, supportive staff, coordinators, students to make this effort a huge and memorable day not for us but for the underprivileged children too. We will surely look forward to it in the coming years."

The entire fest turned successful by the cooperation and effort of Tecnia students under the guidance of the convener - Ms. Nivedita Sharma & mentorship of Dr A.K. Rathore, Director TIAS and with full support from faculty and staff members.

Applauds, hootings and appreciation echoed the whole auditorium when the most waited moment - Prize distribution arrived.
