GROUP DANCE

Name of the event: Group Dance

Time & Venue: 2:35 pm to 4.00 pm, DilliHaat, Pitampura

Day and Date: Wednesday, October 23rd, 2019

Event Coordinator: Ms. Mansi Chopra

Objectives

- To test the strength and zeal of students who are passionate for dance.
- To measure the intensity of coordination and team work amongst young dancers.
- To develop and promote sense of fair competition between participants.

Group dances are choreographed simultaneous dances designed to be performed in groups generally of three or more as a type of social dance. Choreographed group dancing is a common type of folk dancing in many regions and cultures. These types of dances are commonly performed at parties, school dances, and other group functions. Types of group dancing are many, but include square dancing, line dancing and maypole dancing. Trendy dances that become a fad, like the Macarena, the Bunny Hop and the Time Warp are also types of group dances.

In varchasva group dance performances not only rocked the stage but also were a trend setter. The level of performances was above par and students from all over Delhi participated. The event was judged by renowned dance master Mr. Gaurav Goyal. Students of Zakir Hussain college secured first position in this event. Second position was awarded to Keshav Mahavidyalala and students of Bharati College secured the third position.
