Learning Objectives:

Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized a session “Basic needs and Challenges faced by Elderly People” for students of MBA/ BBA/ BA (J & MC) Programme with the following objectives:

1. To know about the problems of Old Age.
2. To gain an insight their joys and grief in day-to-day life.
3. To understand their expectations from young generations.
4. To share their experiences and try to learn from their experiences.
5. To help students gain first-hand information regarding functioning of the organization.
6. To gain an insight of organizations process.
7. To gain an insight about the financial planning of the organization.

About the Organization

HelpAge India is a secular, not-for-profit organization in India, registered under the Societies’ Registration Act of 186. Set up in 1978, the organization works for ‘the cause and care of disadvantaged older persons to improve their quality of life’. HelpAge envisions a society where elderly have the right to an active, healthy and dignified life. It recently became the first and only Indian organization to be honoured with the ‘UN Population

Award 2020' for its exemplary work in the field of aging, relief efforts works during the Covid 19 pandemic and recognition of the organization's outstanding contribution to population issues and efforts in the realization of older person rights in India.

Currently, there is a projected 138 million elderly in India. HelpAge India voices their concerns, so they can lead secure & dignified lives. It works through 26 State Offices across India, runs numerous programs on-ground, addressing elder needs and advocating for their rights, such as their right to Universal Pension, quality Healthcare, action against Elder Abuse, and many more at a national, state, and societal level with Central and State governments. It advocates for elder-friendly policies and their implementation thereof.

Session Report

The session started with an inaugural speech by Dr. Kirti Miglani, Assistant Professor, TIAS. She highlighted the key points because such kinds of sessions are required to sensitize our students. Then a warm welcome is made to address the speaker Mr. Edwin Babu S (Helpage India – Joint Director Programmes ). Mr. Edwin briefed the students about the (a) objectives of the event (b) Organizational Profile, (c) Probable questions to be asked by the Students with the organizational people, Ageing Scenario, Health, Financial, Social Mindset during the Pandemic, Problems of older People in India. He discussed about various initiatives we can take for elderly people. He also explained how we can help them and motivate them.

He gave a brief presentation about the organization's history, its presence, objectives, and strong research. Following the presentation, Mr. Edwin Babu interacted with the students and answered their queries about the operations aspects of the organization. The students have then had an interaction with Senior Citizen Staying there and shared a moment which brings a wonderful experience to the students to interact with elderly people. On a whole, it was an exemplary learning experience that the students will savor for a long time to come.

Glimpses of the session are: The vote of thanks was given by Dr. Sheenu Arora. Faculty, Management department Expressing her gratitude she thanked the speaker, In-charge Student Welfare(Dr. Sonam), Convener(Dr. Kirti Miglani), and team for their support and timely presence. She also thanked Dr. Ajay Kumar, Director, TIAS for his support and confidence in her for giving the move ahead.

Learning Outcome

The participants have learnt the following

1. Happiness is a state of mind
2. Elder People don't need gifts or money, they need your time:
3. Help people, strangers too – that's humanity.
4. How we bid a farewell to the world is in our hands.
5. Love your parents.
6. Life is too short to anticipate things. We frame different outputs without understanding the whole scenario.
7. Enjoy life to the fullest
