REPORT:

A webinar was organized to celebrate Apna Parivaar Global International MSME Day on 27th June 2021 at 11.00 AM. Shri Pratap Chandra Sarangi, Hon'ble Minister of State, Ministry of MSME, Government of India was the chief guest of the occasion.

The event was organized on the Zoom Platform. The anchor for the event was Ms. Simran Ahuja, Miss India 2013. The event started with a welcome of all eminent speakers and participants by Ms. Simran Ahuja. The welcome note was given by Dr. Ajay Kumar, Director , Tecnia institute of advanced studies. Dr. Ajay Kumar in his introductory speech welcomed the Chief Guest Mr. Saranagi and all other eminent speakers of the event. He discussed the importance of International MSME day and spoke the relevance of it. He highlighted that The United Nations observes Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises MSME day on June 27, every year since 2017 to recognise the contribution of these industries in the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and in Global GDP. He mentioned that MSMEs are the backbone of our economies and they can be equipped to ensure an equitable and sustainable post-COVID-19 recovery.

Dr. Ram Kailsh Gupta, Chairman Tecnia Group of Institution and President Apna Parivaar Global, Delhi India briefed the speakers about the Apna Parivaar Global and its contributions through its esteemed members. He thanked Mr. Sarangi and further appreciated the Government of India for its various policies, programmes, promotions and incentives for MSMEs and providing an environment for industry and businesses to grow and develop. He emphasized to practice and follow 'CHAMPION' the acronym, as has been put forward by Ministry of MSME. He accentuated that a further support through more policies and guidelines for banks to lend financial support to business houses, industries and start-ups and innovators would definitely encourage and boost the growth of MSMEs.

The Chief Guest, Shri Pratap Chandra Sarangi, Hon'ble Minister of State, Ministry of MSME, and Government of India spoke about the various programmes that are run by government for promoting MSME. He said that the government is putting efforts to create more opportunities and right ambience for the micro, small and medium-sized enterprises so that they are flooded with multiple options in taking their businesses to the top. He said that Indian people responded promptly to PM Shri Narendra Modi's call for making the nation "Atmanirbhar Bharat" and "Vocal for Local" during the countrywide lockdown. He said that government would bring more impetus for MSMEs as they being the backbone of Indian economy. He acknowledged Apna Parivaar Global and said such business conglomerates would definitely make various industries, entrepreneurs, start-ups and innovators to grow and contribute in the nation's growth and development.

The High Commission of Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, New Delhi, Dr. Roger Gopaul spoke about Impact and Importance of MSMEs highlighting their contribution in various sectors and in GDP of the country. He gave an overview about the different industries which are growing in the country. He discussed that 70% of the Industry requirement in the country comes from MSMEs and also it contributed to 6.8% of country's GDP. He emphasized that India and Trinidad and Tobago has good Exim relations and invited various stake holders like established industries or business houses, start-ups, innovative enterprise particularly MSMEs to come in the country for business and assured full cooperation for the Government for it.

Counsellor Investment and Trade Consulate of Mauritius Economic Development Board Mauritius Mr. Seewraj Nundlall, Mauritius in his presentations gave an overview of Mauritius and spoke about diverse Economic sectors and their percentage hold in total industrial sector. He discussed about SME Mauritius , a private company wholly owned by Government of Mauritius to promote and develop enterprise in Mauritius. He told that the turnover of MSME and SME in Mauritius is INR 1.7 Cr and INR1.7 to 88 Cr, respectively and stated that SMEs contribute to 40% in economy, 12% in export and generated employment, one out of two employments. He discussed about the robust trading and business linkages between India and Mauritius and the opportunities and scope of business between the two countries.

The Chief Guest, Shri Pratap Chandra Sarangi, Hon'ble Minister of State, Ministry of MSME, and Government of India spoke about the various programmes that are run by government for promoting MSME. He said that the government is putting efforts to create more opportunities and right ambience for the micro, small and medium-sized enterprises so that they are flooded with multiple options in taking their businesses to the top. He said that Indian people responded promptly to PM Shri Narendra Modi's call for making the nation "Atmanirbhar Bharat" and "Vocal for Local" during the countrywide lockdown. He said that government would bring more impetus for MSMEs as they being the backbone of Indian economy. He acknowledged Apna Parivaar Global and said such business conglomerates would definitely make various industries, entrepreneurs, start-ups and innovators to grow and contribute in the nation's growth and development.

The Honorary Consulate General of Embassy of Comoros, HE, Mr. Kanhaiya Lal Ganju told that Agriculture, fishing, forestry and hunting are the leading sectors and a major source of income in Comoros and these sectors contribute 40% to the country's GDP while engage almost 80% of the population of the country. He briefed about the various avenues and opportunities of trade and business at Comoros especially in the agriculture, aqua culture, infrastructure, transportation etc. and invited Indian start-ups and innovators along with renowned industries for exploration of business opportunities at Comoros while speaking on the occasion through this platform.

Minister Counsellor - Economic and Political Ghana High Commission, Mr. Ernest Nana Adjie spoke about the role and impact of MSME contribution to the country's GDP, employment and trade. He highlighted the relation between India and Ghana and various opportunities of joint collaboration of trade, industry tie ups and business. He discussed that his Government welcomes various business houses and start-ups for setting up of businesses.

Head of Consular Affairs Embassy of Burkina Faso Mr. Coulibaly D Herve, highlighted the immense potential of trade and business in the country. He stated that the country is developing and lots of scope and upcoming avenues along with government support would attract the start-ups and business houses. He said that the country would welcome Indian entrepreneurs and industries with open arms for the development in almost all the sectors.

Mr. Rajnish Goenka, Chairman MSME Development Forum appreciated the efforts of Apna Parivaar Global.
