The Martyrdom Day of the great person Gandhi Ji is celebrated every year on 30th January as the Martyr Day all over the India in order to re-memorize his selfless efforts. Martyr Day campaign is celebrated in the schools premises by showing the presentation as well as movie to the students.

Mahatma Gandhi (Bapu) was assassinated in the year 1948 before the sunset during the evening prayers. He was a great freedom fighter of the India and counted as the greatest amongst the lakhs and lakhs of martyrs. He did a very hard work throughout his life for the independence, welfare and development of the India. 30th of January is the martyr day of the Mahatma Gandhi which was declared by the Government of India as the Martyrs Day. Since then, 30th of January is celebrated as the Martyrs Day every year to pay tribute to the Mahatma Gandhi. January 30 of the year 1948 was the saddest day for the country which has become the most poignant day in the Indian history.

Bapu had started working on the mission for setting up the harmony, peace and brotherhood among the people of India but, he was killed while working on this mission.

Faculty members, staff and Students from Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies observed two minutes silence and also took pledge against untouchability. By taking the pledge our volunteers learnt to avoid violence against "Untouchables" and it is a crime.

The programme was conducted at all class rooms by their respective faculty members and all the staff members also participated in the classroom.
