Human Rights Day is celebrated on the 10th December every year to commemorate the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), which was adopted and proclaimed by the General Assembly of the United Nations in 1948 as the shared standard yard stick to protect human rights across the globe. The Declaration recognizes that the inherent dignity and the equal and inalienable rights of mankind are the foundation of justice, freedom and peace in the world. It reaffirms the faith of the people of United Nations in the fundamental human rights.

The theme decided by the United Nations for this year's Human Rights Day, relates to the COVID-19 pandemic and focuses on "the need to recover better by ensuring Human Rights are at the heart of recovery efforts". It emphasizes that "we will reach our common global goals only if we are able to create equal opportunities for all, address the failures exposed and exploited by COVID-19, and apply human rights standards to tackle entrenched, systematic, and inter-generational inequalities, exclusion and discrimination. 10thDecember is an opportunity to reaffirm the importance of human rights in re-building the world we want, the need for global solidarity as well as our interconnectedness and shared humanity."

Human rights are the basic rights every human being is entitled to. Every year, Human Rights Day is celebrated across the world on December 10 'to commemorate the adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)'.
