Report

This special day is held on September 16th to mark the day back in 1987 when the Montreal Protocol was signed. As a result, a number of special events such as talks and seminars are held in the Canadian city of Montreal on this day. World Ozone Day has been celebrated since 1994 and was established by the United Nations General Assembly. The day is mainly intended to spread awareness of the depletion of the Ozone Layer and search for solutions to preserve it. People from all over the world are expected to gather in Montreal on September 16th to join the talks and seminars. World Ozone Day is also celebrated all around the world. Educators usually set aside this day to teach their students about the Ozone layer and many schools organize special events and activities to raise awareness. This is one event that everyone can experience and enjoy together.

As we reached the Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Combating Climate Change, Alipur, Delhi at 09:15 am, students were accompanied by Ms. Gurmeet for registration of “on the spot Quiz competition”. After registration we went to the Seminar Hall where she gave a brief presentation about the international ozone day, after that Mr.R.K.Jenamani gave detailed presentation on Ozone and its adverse effects on earth and interacted with the students and answered their queries regarding Ozone layer and its Impact etc. The gist of presentation is as under; since 1995, on 16 September each year, the International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer is celebrated.

This date has been designated by the United Nations General Assembly in its resolution 49/114, to commemorate the signing of the Montreal Protocol on Substances that Deplete the Ozone Layer. The Ozone Layer describes the protective layer of naturally occurring gas, comprised of three atoms of oxygen found about 10 – 50 km above the earth's surface that protects us from the harmful ultraviolet radiation or UV-B rays of sun. Scientist in the 1970's discovered that the layer was thinning as a result of the release of CFC's, consequently; the ozone layer is made up of a thin layer of gaseous ozone (O₃) and is affected by certain chemicals that eat up this protective layer. In 1985, nations around the world convened at Vienna in an attempt to develop a framework for co-operative activities to protect the Ozone layer. This signed agreement became known as the Vienna Convention for the Protection of the Ozone Layer.
