6. To generate awareness in the country about the danger of terrorism, violence and its dangerous effect on the people, society, and whole country.

REPORT

Anti-Terrorism Day marks the death anniversary of former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi. He was assassinated on 21 May, 1991. The day holds importance when it comes to 'terrorism'.

On 21 May, every year Anti-Terrorism Day is observed to provide knowledge to the youth about terrorism, its impact on human suffering, and lives. This day also makes people aware of an anti-social act of terrorism. Every day we come to know about one terrorist act or another via newspaper or TV. Basically, the terrorists want to create fear in the minds of the common people. Without any remorse, they kill thousands of people because they don't have any conscience.

It is necessary to propagate the message of humanity and peace. Indian Government has taken the step by celebrating Anti-Terrorism every year to highlight the importance of fighting with the activities of terrorism.

The day spread awareness about the violence caused by the terrorists. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it will be observed with precautions. MHA has advised that the 'Anti-Terrorism Pledge' may be taken solemnly by the Officials in their rooms/offices itself, keeping in view the safety of participants and organizers and avoiding public gatherings officials working from home may also advised accordingly.

In addition, considering importance and solemnity of the occasion, innovative ways of propagating the message of anti-terrorism through digital and social medial platforms is also considered.

Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies along with student, faculty and staff members celebrate anti-terrorism day. Essay writing competition has been conducted for students on this special day and also anti-terrorism pledge taking ceremony has been organized.

ANTI-TERRORISM PLEDGE

"We, the people of India, having abiding faith in our country's tradition of non-violence and tolerance, hereby solemnly affirm to oppose with our strength, all forms of terrorism and violence.

We pledge to uphold and promote peace, social harmony, and understand among all fellow human beings and fight the forces of disruption threatening human lives and values."

In essay writing competition, around 30 students has participated with full enthusiasm. Maneesha and Kusum Yadav from BBA stood 1st and 2nd respectively.
