REPORT

NSS Cell, Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies along with student, faculty and staff members organised Anti-Leprosy Day and pay tribute and honour to Mahatma Gandhi Ji on this day our deepest tributes to the Mahatma Gandhi Ji (Nation Father) that have lost his life by bringing us peace.

The Martyrdom Day of the great person Gandhi Ji is celebrated every year on 30th January as the Anti- Leprosy Day all over the India in order to re-memorize his selfless efforts and care for the people affected by the infectious disease leprosy (also known as the Hansen's disease). It is celebrated to understand the real need to fight against the leprosy. Anti-Leprosy Day campaign is celebrated in the schools premises by showing the presentation as well as movie to the students to aware them towards the much infectious disease Leprosy.

Anyone can be affected with this disease, so the day is celebrated to make aware the people about the scientific reasons of leprosy as well as its medical cures. It would be celebrated at the same day at 30th of January in the year 2014 in order focusing on the attention of people and their awareness about this air-borne disease. The day is also celebrated in the memory of Mahatma Gandhi who had tried very much for the eradication of leprosy. Several programmes are organized at this day all across the India to share the message with people to fight against leprosy and let them know that the disease is completely curable. It is celebrated to pay homage to the Mahatma Gandhi Ji who fought for the freedom, welfare and progress of the India and sacrificed his life.

Mahatma Gandhi (Bapu) was assassinated in the year 1948 before the sunset during the evening prayers. He was a great freedom fighter of the India and counted as the greatest amongst the lakhs and lakhs of martyrs. He did a very hard work throughout his life for the independence, welfare and development of the India. 30th of January is the martyr day of the Mahatma Gandhi which was declared by the Government of India as the Martyrs' Day and Anti-Leprosy Day. Since then, 30th of January is celebrated as the Martyrs' Day every year to pay tribute to the Mahatma Gandhi. January 30 of the year 1948 was the saddest day for the country which has become the most poignant day in the Indian history.

Bapu had started working on the mission for setting up the harmony, peace and brotherhood among the people of India but, he was killed while working on this mission.

The programme was conducted at class rooms by their respective faculty members and all the staff members also participated in the classroom.
