Report:

EBSB club of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, New Delhi has played Screening of Film (Sikkim- Documentary Film by Satyajit Roy) On June 01, 2022 under the valuable guidance of Director Dr. Ajay Kumar. All the students of BBA, BAJMC, BCA and MCA, MBA participated in this event. Students have gained insight into the history of Sikkim through Documentary movie.

The documentary short film “Sikkim” is a 1971 Indian documentary about the nation of Sikkim, directed by Satyajit Ray. The documentary was commissioned by the Chogyal (King) of Sikkim at a time when he felt the sovereignty of Sikkim was under threat from both China and India. Ray’s documentary is about the sovereignty of Sikkim, the film was banned by the government of India, when Sikkim merged with India in 1975. In 2000, the copyright of the film was transferred to the Art and Culture Trust of Sikkim. The ban was finally lifted by the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) in September 2010.

Through the movie students have learned about various aspects of Sikkim state including geography, the livelihood of Sikkim, cottage industry, handloom industry, agriculture aspects, and agro-ecological and entrepreneurship opportunities
