SPEAKER: Dr. Ranjeet Mehta

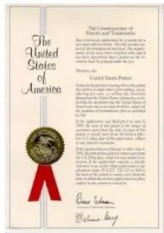

Dr. Mehta briefed us about Intellectual Property Right with the start ups.

- He further informed us the opportunities in the MSME are enormous due to following reasons:
- Less capital intensive.
 - Extensive promotions and support by government.
 - Reservation for exclusive manufacture by small scale sector.
 - Project profiles.
 - Funding- finance and subsidies.
 - Machinery procurement.
 - Technical and managerial skills.

- Project profiles.
 - Export promotions.
 - Tooling and testing support.
 - Increasing export potential for Indian products.
- Dr. Mehta informed us about the start ups.
- A startup is an entrepreneurial venture in search of enough financial backing to get off the ground.
 - The first challenge for a startup is to prove the validity of the concept to potential lenders and investors.
 - Startups are always risky propositions but potential investors have several approaches to determining their values.

STUDENTS ATTENDING THE WORKSHOP

- SPEAKER: MR. DP GOEL

- Mr. Goel addresses about the entrepreneurial skills and more about intellectual property.
 - Entrepreneurial skills can encompass a broad range of various skill sets like technical skills, leadership and business management skills and creative thinking. Because entrepreneurial skills can be applied to many different job roles and industries, developing your entrepreneurial skills can mean developing several types of skill sets. For instance, to be a successful business owner, you may need to develop your business management skills. To build and maintain successful project teams you might need to improve your leadership and communication skills.

Intellectual Property (IP)

IP : umbrella term for the results of creative efforts from the mind or intellect.

Convention Establishing the World Intellectual Property Organisation 1967 (WIPO) defines

IP:

“rights relating to:

- literary, artistic and scientific works; performances of performing artists, phonograms and broadcasts
- inventions in all fields of human endeavour
- scientific discoveries
- industrial designs
- trade marks, services marks and commercial names and designations
- protection against unfair competition, and
- all other rights resulting from intellectual activity in the industrial, scientific, literary or artistic fields.”

SPEAKER: DR. DURGESH TRIPATHI

- Dr. Tripathi informed us about IPR.
- He further added that Intellectual property rights are legal rights that provide creators protection for original works, inventions, or the appearance of products, artistic works, scientific developments, and so on.
- There are four types of intellectual property rights (IP): patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets.
- Dr. Tripathi further informed us about the entrepreneurial skills :
 1. Business management skills
 2. Teamwork and leadership skills
 3. Communication and listening
 4. Customer service skills
 5. Financial skills
 6. Analytical and problem-solving skills
 7. Critical thinking skills
 8. Strategic thinking and planning skills
 9. Technical skills

10. Time management and organizational skills
11. Branding, marketing and networking skills

- SPEAKER: MR. SANDEEP AGGARWAL

- Mr. Aggarwal briefed us about IPR and startups.
- He informed us about start up:
 1. A startup or start-up is a company or project undertaken by an entrepreneur to seek, develop, and validate a scalable economic model.
- While entrepreneurship refers to all new businesses, including self-employment and businesses that never intend to become registered, startups refer to new businesses that intend to grow large beyond the solo founder.
- He further informed us about the IPR :
 1. Utility: A utility patent protects the creation of a new or improved product, process, composition of matter, or machine that is useful.
 2. Design: A design patent protects the ornamental design on a useful item.
 3. Plant: A plant patent protects new kinds of plants produced by cuttings or other nonsexual means.
 4. Trademark: Trademarks are another familiar type of intellectual property rights protection. A trademark is a distinctive sign which allows consumers to easily identify the particular goods or services that a company provides.
