

Review Process

Blind Peer Reviewed Journal

TJMS Journal is double-blind peer review Journal. In Review process the identity of both the author and reviewer is kept hidden, hence it prevents the reviewer from forming any bias.

Refereed Journal

TJMS Journal is a refereed journal contains articles that have been through a peer review process. Before being accepted for publication, the articles reviewed for their quality by recognized academics or experts in the field.

Copyright & Publishing Rights

Assigning the copyright & publishing Rights by authors & enables TJMS Journal to:

- Effectively manage, publish and make your work available to the academic community and beyond.
- Act as stewards of your work as it appears in the scholarly record.
- Handle reuse requests on your behalf.
- Take action when appropriate where your article has been infringed or plagiarized.
- Increase visibility of your work through third parties.

After assigning copyright by Authors to TJMS Journal, Authors will still retain the right to:

- Be credited as the author of the article.
- Make printed copies of your article to use for a lecture or class that you are leading on a non-commercial basis.
- Share your article using your free e-prints with friends, colleagues and concerned people you would like to read your work.
- Include your article in your doctoral thesis or project dissertation.
- Present your article at seminar, conference workshop and distribute printed copies of the article on a non-commercial basis.
- Post the Author's Original Manuscript on institute or personal website or institutional repositories.