OBJECTIVES:

- Educate participants and attendees about the significance of Martyr's Day and the contributions of martyrs in the nation's history.
- Provide a platform for students to engage in thoughtful debate and discussion on topics related to patriotism, national service, and historical sacrifices.

On Martyr's Day, Tecnia NSS students organized a highly successful debate competition aimed at honoring the sacrifices of our nation's martyrs. The event provided an excellent platform for students to deepen their understanding of Martyr's Day while honing their critical thinking and public speaking skills. Participants engaged in dynamic discussions on topics related to patriotism and national service, fostering a respectful and informed dialogue. The competition not only highlighted the importance of historical contributions but also encouraged students to research thoroughly and present well-rounded arguments. By involving the wider Technia community, including faculty and peers, the event promoted a sense of national pride and unity, in line with the NSS's mission of community service and civic engagement. The structured and fair format of the debate ensured a meaningful and educational experience for all involved..

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Increased understanding and appreciation of Martyr's Day and the sacrifices made by national heroes among participants and attendees.
- Notable improvement in the public speaking and presentation skills of participants through structured debate practice.
- Enhanced critical thinking and analytical skills as students researched and argued various aspects of patriotism and national service.
