Objectives of the event:

- ✓ To make students realize how we are on a transformative path towards 'New India'.
- ✓ To help them explore An India which is not only a global economic and social powerhouse, but also a beacon of hope and unity, leading with the principles of 'Vasudaiva Kutumbakam'

Report:

Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized an extempore under the umbrella of Literary club for the students of BBA, MBA, BA(J&MC) and BCA on Golden Years of India's Transformation & Growth.

The aim of this extempore was to explore 'New India', an India which is not only a global economic and social powerhouse, but also a beacon of hope and unity the program was a good opportunity for the participants to reveal their skills. Many students participated and showed their unique ideas which revolved around pillars of governance – People First, Politics of Unity and Development, Jan Dhan: An Economy for Everyone, A New Paradigm in Governance and 'Vasudaiva Kutumbakam': India and the World. There was also a judging panel consisting three judges to determine the winners and the best two have been selected for the first and second position respectively.

Learning Outcome:

- Students learned how we are on a transformative path which has been carefully laid on the tenets of inclusivity, empowerment, transparency, reforms, wellbeing, and democracy.
- Students learned a fact that India today stands tall globally among other nations with pride and head held high.
