Report

The Outreach activity in this event is the organization of the Film Screening Competition by the Electoral Literacy Club of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies (TIAS), Rohini, Delhi. This competition serves as a platform to spread awareness about electoral rights and the importance of voting among the students. The club plays a crucial role in educating students about the process of registration and the role of citizens in choosing their representatives. By participating in the competition and creating videos, students enhance their creative skills and thinking ability while also contributing to the clarity of understanding about the importance of voting among their peers.

The Electoral Literacy Club of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Rohini, Delhi organized a Film Screening Competition as an extension activity to promote awareness about electoral rights and the importance of voting among students.

The competition received enthusiastic participation from students across different departments. The club played a vital role in educating students about the complete registration process and creating awareness about electoral rights. A total of 8 videos were submitted by students, out of which two videos were based on the given theme. Through their participation in the competition, students enhanced their creative skills and thinking abilities while also fostering a clearer understanding of the importance of voting. The selected video participants were awarded certificates for their contributions.

The extension activity of organizing the Film Screening Competition aligns with the constitutional value of promoting democratic principles and civic engagement. By spreading awareness about electoral rights and encouraging students to actively participate in the democratic process, the event upholds the constitutional value of empowering citizens and fostering their engagement in shaping the nation's future.

Feedback : By participating in this contest student educate the society about voters awareness.
