blood	to the students for donating blood
-------	------------------------------------

Report:

In association with "Mission Jan Jagriti," Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies hosted a blood donation camp on November 14, 2022, from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM in Multipurpose Hall, PG Building, TIAS campus. Dr. M N Jha, Dean of the Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Dr. Ajay Kumar, Director, Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Dr. Sheenu Arora, Red Ribbon Club, TIAS, and Dr. N K Bhatia, President of Mission Jan Jagriti, all gave opening remarks to the camp. An enormous number of volunteers from many departments have participated in this camp with vigor. After giving blood, the donors received coffee mugs, juices, and biscuits to help them feel refreshed. Mission Jan Jagriti gave each blood donor a blood donation certificate card that was good for a year. Seven volunteers with the rarest blood type participated in the blood donation program, and 72 volunteers gave blood while at the camp.

The primary goal of the program was to educate kids about the benefits of blood donation to those in need. Participants included BJMC, MBA, BBA, and MCA students. We received positive feedback, and a respectable number of pupils took part in the activity.

The event's goals are to raise awareness and work with Mission Jan Jagriti for a worthy cause. Mr. Bhupendra Singh, Head of Mission Jan Jagriti, praised the institute's efforts and congratulated them on their success in inspiring students and raising awareness of the advantages of blood donation. Mission Jan Jagriti gave certificates and refreshments to the volunteer students, and Dr. Sheenu Arora of the Red Ribbon Club gave the final vote of thanks.
