REPORT

On 27th May, the Literary Club of Tecnia Institute organized a campaign on "Importance of education in life" at Bhalswa Dairy and Shakurpur Basti. The objective of the event was to raise awareness about the importance of education in life and distribute study kits to the underprivileged children in the community. The event was coordinated by Mr. Bal Krishna Mishra, the nodal officer of the Literary Club. The Campaign began in the morning at Bhalswa Dairy, where the members of the Literary Club set up a makeshift stage and arranged seating for the attendees. Volunteers from Tecnia Institute and local residents gathered to support the cause and make the event a success. The event focused on highlighting the significance of education in an individual's life. Several speeches were delivered, emphasizing how education opens doors to opportunities, empowers individuals, and helps in personal and societal development. The speakers shared inspiring stories of successful individuals who had overcome challenges through education. As part of the event, the Literary Club distributed study kits to the underprivileged children in Bhalswa Dairy and Shakurpur Basti. Each study kit contained essential items such as notebooks, pens, pencils, erasers, sharpeners, rulers, and coloring materials. The study kits were designed to provide the children with the necessary tools to pursue their education effectively. The event witnessed active participation from Tecnia Institute students and volunteers. They assisted in organizing the event, managing the distribution of study kits, and engaging with the attendees. Volunteers also interacted with the children, encouraging them to embrace education and supporting their aspirations. Mr. Bal Krishna Mishra, the nodal officer of the Literary Club, played a vital role in planning and executing the event. He oversaw the logistics, coordinated with volunteers, and ensured the smooth running of the event. His dedication and efforts were instrumental in the success of the event. He said that, the Literary Club remains committed to promoting literacy and continuing such initiatives in the future. Campaign was a resounding success. Through the distribution of study kits and awareness about the importance of education, the event aimed to make a positive impact on the lives of underprivileged children. The participation of volunteers, students, and local residents showcased the collective effort to bring about change through education.
