Report: Description	The "Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat" (EBSB) programs aim to bring people from different states together and help them understand each other better. In line with this initiative, various activities are organized by states to encourage cultural exchange in areas like language, traditions, music, tourism, and sports. To support this, the EBSB club at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies (TIAS) in Rohini organized a special event called "Cultural Exchange Programme" with a focus on celebrating Sikkim Culture. It took place at Bhalaswa Dairy in New Delhi, and 25 enthusiastic students from different departments joined in. During the event, the students introduced themselves and explained the purpose of the campaign to the local community. They engaged in discussions to share insights about Sikkim culture, including its festivals, customs, cuisine, language, and job opportunities. They also highlighted environmental initiatives undertaken by the people of Sikkim to preserve their natural beauty. The outreach activity aimed to connect with and educate the community about Sikkim culture, while also promoting the idea of social integration and unity in diversity. It served as a platform for dialogue and understanding between different states, fostering greater harmony and appreciation among people.
