Report on Group Discussion on LGBTQ

Title of Activity*

Group Discussion on LGBTQ

Values

OBE Values (Outcomes-Based Education):

- 1. Respect for Diversity and Inclusion: The group discussion fostered an environment of respect for diversity, where participants recognized and appreciated the unique experiences of LGBTQ individuals, promoting inclusivity within the campus community.
- 2. Critical Thinking and Self-Reflection: Participants were encouraged to critically assess their own beliefs, values, and biases towards the LGBTQ community. This process of self-reflection allowed them to grow personally and intellectually.
- 3. Effective Communication and Expression: The group discussion facilitated open and constructive communication among participants. It allowed individuals to express their thoughts, ideas, and concerns freely while maintaining a respectful and supportive atmosphere.
- 4. Social Awareness and Responsibility: By engaging in discussions about LGBTQ rights and challenges, participants developed a heightened social awareness. They realized the importance of standing up against discrimination and working towards a more equitable society.
- 5. Ethical and Inclusive Leadership: The Gender Champion Club, under the guidance of Dr. Rajni Yadav, exemplified ethical and inclusive leadership by organizing an event that promoted understanding and respect for LGBTQ issues.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Increased Awareness: Participants gained a deeper understanding of the LGBTQ community, its diversity, and the challenges faced by its members. This awareness helped dispel myths and misconceptions about sexual orientation and gender identity.
2. Empathy and Understanding: The group discussion provided a platform for individuals to share their stories, perspectives, and struggles. As a result, participants developed empathy and a greater appreciation for the unique journeys of LGBTQ individuals.
3. Promotion of Inclusivity: The event emphasized the importance of creating inclusive spaces that celebrate diversity and respect everyone's right to self-expression, regardless of their sexual orientation or gender identity.
4. Addressing Stereotypes and Bias: Through meaningful conversations, participants were encouraged to reflect on their own biases and stereotypes related to the LGBTQ community. This led to the identification and dismantling of harmful prejudices.
5. Knowledge of LGBTQ Rights: The discussion highlighted the legal and human rights issues faced by the LGBTQ community. Participants learned about the importance of advocating for equal rights and opportunities for all individuals, irrespective of their sexual orientation or gender identity.

The Gender Champion Club at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized a group discussion on LGBTQ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer) issues in June 2023. The discussion aimed to foster awareness, empathy, and understanding of LGBTQ experiences, challenges, and rights. The event welcomed students, faculty, and staff from various backgrounds to engage in a respectful and open dialogue.

The Gender Champion Club at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized a group discussion on LGBTQ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer) issues on June 2023. The event was aimed at fostering awareness, empathy, and understanding of the LGBTQ community, its challenges, and the importance of promoting inclusivity and equality.

Event Agenda: The group discussion commenced at 10:00 AM in the auditorium. The event was open to all students, faculty, and staff members of TIAS who were interested in participating in a respectful and open dialogue on LGBTQ topics.

Welcoming Remarks: Dr. Rajni Yadav, the Convenor of the Gender Champion Club and Assistant Professor in the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, initiated the event by delivering a warm and inclusive welcome address. Dr. Yadav emphasized the significance of understanding and supporting the LGBTQ community and how the event aimed to promote an inclusive and respectful campus environment.

Presentation on LGBTQ Basics: The discussion began with a comprehensive presentation on LGBTQ basics. The presentation covered topics like sexual orientation, gender identity, common terminology, and the various challenges faced by LGBTQ individuals in society. This session was particularly beneficial for those who were relatively new to LGBTQ issues and helped set the stage for the subsequent discussion.

Open Dialogue and Personal Stories: The core of the event revolved around an open dialogue session where participants were encouraged to share their thoughts, experiences, and perspectives on LGBTQ issues. The session was moderated by Dr. Rajni Yadav, ensuring that everyone had an opportunity to speak and that the conversation remained respectful and supportive.

Several brave individuals from the LGBTQ community also shared their personal stories, highlighting their journeys, challenges, and achievements. These narratives provided profound insights into the struggles faced by LGBTQ individuals and the importance of creating an inclusive and accepting society.

Breakout Sessions: To facilitate more intimate discussions, participants were divided into smaller groups for breakout sessions. These sessions allowed for more focused conversations, enabling participants to delve deeper into specific topics related to LGBTQ rights, discrimination, mental health, and the role of allies.

Expert Panel Discussion: Following the breakout sessions, an expert panel comprising LGBTQ activists, psychologists, and human rights advocates engaged in a thought-provoking discussion. The panel addressed questions from the participants and shared valuable insights on legal aspects, societal challenges, and ways to be better allies to the LGBTQ community.

Learning Outcomes and OBE Values: The event achieved its intended learning outcomes, as participants expressed increased awareness of LGBTQ issues and the importance of empathy and understanding. The group discussion successfully promoted inclusivity and challenged stereotypes and biases. Participants demonstrated critical thinking and self-reflection throughout the event and showcased a heightened sense of social awareness and responsibility.

The Gender Champion Club, under the leadership of Dr. Rajni Yadav, demonstrated ethical and inclusive leadership in organizing the event, aligning with the institute's OBE values of respect for diversity and inclusion, effective communication and expression, and ethical and inclusive leadership.

The group discussion on LGBTQ held at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies was a remarkable success. Participants engaged in meaningful conversations, exchanged ideas, and fostered empathy and understanding towards the LGBTQ community. The event not only contributed to the personal growth of the participants but also promoted an inclusive and supportive campus community.
