The Gender Champion Club organized an insightful talk on "The Role of Women in Nation's Economic Growth" at the UG Building, TIAS, on 07-07-2023. The event aimed to highlight the significant contributions of women to the nation's economic development and underscore the need for gender equality and empowerment. Dr. Rajni Yadav, the club's convenor, led the event, which brought together students, faculty, and members of the community to engage in meaningful discussions about the role of women in the economy.

Session Highlights: The talk commenced with an introduction by the club's coordinator, emphasizing the significance of discussing the role of women in the nation's economic growth. The keynote speaker, an expert in gender studies and economics, presented the following key highlights during the session:

Women's Economic Contribution: The speaker elaborated on the significant role played by women in the economy, from being contributors to the labor force to entrepreneurs and decision-makers. Statistics and case studies were shared to showcase the positive correlation between increased women's participation in the economy and overall economic growth.

Challenges and Barriers: The talk also shed light on the challenges women face in accessing economic opportunities, such as gender stereotypes, pay gaps, and limited access to education and finance. Participants were encouraged to recognize these barriers and take proactive steps to address them.

Promoting Gender Equality: Strategies to promote gender equality in the workplace and society were discussed. This included implementing policies that support work-life balance, providing equal pay for equal work, and encouraging women's leadership roles.

Economic and Social Benefits: The speaker highlighted the positive impacts of women's empowerment on the economy, such as increased GDP growth, improved productivity, and poverty reduction. Additionally, societal benefits like improved health and education outcomes were also emphasized.

Individual and Collective Actions: The talk concluded with a call to action for participants to become advocates for gender equality. It encouraged everyone to challenge gender norms, support women's economic ventures, and actively promote gender-balanced policies in their communities and workplaces.

The talk on "The Role of Women in Nation's Economic Growth" proved to be an eye-opening and enlightening event. Participants gained valuable insights into the crucial contributions of women to economic development and the importance of gender equality in fostering a prosperous society. By fostering awareness, promoting empowerment, and advocating for gender equality, we can work towards a more inclusive and thriving nation. The Gender Champion Club continues to be committed to organizing such events to raise awareness and create positive change in society.
