Report

The session started with an inaugural speech by Dr. Abhishek Bansal, Yoga Practitioner. He highlighted how meditation helps you to control your mind. He added if you can't control your mind, you will be ruled by your nervous system and your environment. He further said that focus leads to composure and self-empowerment. He discussed the following points with the participants:

- How to discover the inner subtle self and bring self-realization to the masses through meditation.
- How to Experience emotional well-being and self-improvement.
- How to get to know yourself through self-realization.
- How to transform human awareness through techniques that promote a more moral, united, integrated, and balanced self.

The vote of thanks was given by Mr.Nitin Yadav,convener of the event. Expressing his gratitude he thanked Director Dr. Ajay Kumar, Dean Dr M N Jha,Faculties & students for their support and timely presence. The session concluded with a note on the promise from both the sides that these kind of camps will be continued in the times to come.
