The Student Induction Programme, conducted at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, aimed to orient new students to the academic environment and provide them with essential information, skills, and resources for a successful academic journey.

The day was marked with the presence of Dr. Sandhya Bindal vice chairperson of TIAS, Dr. Ajay Rathore Director of TIAS, and Dr. M.N Jha Dean of TIAS . Other noted presence included Dr. Deepak Sonker HOD of ICT Department.

Ms. Chesta Agarwal welcomed the distinguished guest, Mr. Mukesh Kumar, Professor Jagdish Chandra Kapur , Shri Sunnel Keshwani and students, introduced the guests to the audience. She thanked them for their presence and invited guest to speak.

Key Findings:

Strong Orientation and Resource Familiarity:

The programme effectively introduced students to campus facilities, key resources, and academic policies. Feedback indicated that participants felt confident navigating the campus and utilizing available services.

Support Services and Study Skills:

Students acknowledged the importance of support services, particularly the tutoring center and academic advising. The programme successfully introduced effective study skills and time management techniques.

Cultural and Social Integration:

Social integration activities were met with enthusiasm. Students expressed appreciation for the opportunities to interact with peers and engage in team-building exercises.

Facilitate Ongoing Self-assessment:

Offer resources or workshops to encourage continued self-reflection and goal setting throughout the academic year.

Transition or Bridge Classes:

We Designed bridge class may refer to a course to help students transition from one level of education to another, or to help students who need additional support to catch up to their peers in a specific subject.

Human Values :

We designed a "human values class" refers to a course or educational program that focuses on teaching and exploring values that are considered important for personal and societal well-being. These classes aim to instill ethical, moral, and social principles that guide human behavior and interactions.
