On 18th May 2023, an impactful street play was organized on the topic of "Dahej Pratha" (dowry system) at Nangli Puna Village, New Delhi. The event aimed to raise awareness and educate the audience about the negative consequences of this social issue prevalent in our society. The initiative was taken by the Gender Champion Club, with Dr. Rajni Yadav, the Nodal officer, as the convener and Mr. Suraj as the student coordinator.

Event Details: The event commenced at 2:00 p.m. with a warm welcome to the audience. The participants of the street play were students from various courses, including BJMC, BBA, BCA, and MBA. The play depicted the various aspects of the dowry system, highlighting its detrimental impact on individuals and society as a whole.

Activities:

Street Play Performance: The students showcased their acting skills and creativity through a powerful street play. The play was divided into different acts, each addressing a specific aspect of dowry and its consequences. The performers brilliantly portrayed the emotional turmoil faced by individuals involved in the dowry system, aiming to create a lasting impact on the audience.

Interaction with the Audience: Following the street play, there was an interactive session where the audience was encouraged to share their thoughts, ask questions, and express their opinions. This facilitated a deeper understanding of the subject and encouraged discussions on possible solutions.

Volunteers: 10 enthusiastic volunteers actively participated in organizing and managing the event. They efficiently handled the logistics, coordination, and crowd management, ensuring the smooth flow of the program.

The street play on Dahej Pratha was a resounding success in terms of both participation and impact. The powerful performances by students effectively conveyed the message against the dowry system. The audience responded positively, showing their support and eagerness to work towards eradicating this social evil. The event not only raised awareness but also encouraged the audience to take action and become agents of change.
