Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)***

The ELC club of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies (TIAS), Rohini has organized an event; “Rap Battle” on 7th Dec,2023. The event was conducted as an outreach activity on the occasion of Varchasava fest which has been organized in Delhi Haat.The notice has been circulated in class groups and then the students actively came forward to participate in the event.. Firstly, the Nodal officer Ms. Chahat Malhotra introduced about the key motive behind the organization of tis event and educated the students about their Voting rights. The Event was successful students enjoyed the group dance performance as well as they learnt a valuable message that what are the social values attaches with excersizing of their voting rights .The students learnt a valuable message that their voting helps Citizens become more involved in their government and keep it accountable. In addition to voting, there are few laws that ensure fair elections around the World, so through this event they learnt all the things.

They also learnt a valuable message that by excersizing their voting rights the Democracy will be more free , fair, better. They also learnt that voting keeps politicians accountable for their actions and creates framework for democracy. The students also came to know about the importance of celebrating voters day and how they can increase participation of citizens of country in elections. The students prepared a short discussion videos with their friends and shared their views that why we should go for voting and they learnt how their participation is important for the growth and development of nation as for economic growth selection of right candidate is very important .

In conclusion students got Aware about their voting rights and they also got motivated to give votes everytime for the betterment of the society and also for the welfare of their own. They got motivation also to make their friends and family members aware about their voting rights.
