Expansion of knowledge in the fields of mobilizing science knowledge and policy for sustainable development was anticipated for the third-year BA(JMC) students. In this segment of their course on global media, UNESCO was discussed. While it promoted audience participation and deep conversation, students learnt about obtaining lifelong learning and high-quality education for everybody. This task's completion emphasizes how crucial understanding is to media studies. This was successfully finished by the BA (JMC) final-year student.
