Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*	A session on situational dialogues and role play was organized in Language Lab. The resource person Dr. Poonam Dua discussed about situational dialogues and their importance in language learning and stated that situational dialogues are conversations that take place in specific situations, such as ordering food at a restaurant or buying tickets at a movie theatre. She further added that practicing such simulations are important as it provide an opportunity for applying practical language skills that they can use in real-life situations. She defined the meaning of Role play where the students are assigned different roles to act out a particular scenario. The situation and role play for the session was Casual Interaction with a friend meeting after long time. The students practiced using language in context and developed their communication skills by using the language and vocabulary they had learned in class to create a realistic conversation. After the role play exercises, she discussed the
