Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

A session on Extempore was organized by Training and Placement Cell, TIAS on 28.11.2023 for the students of BAJMC 2nd Year program under the ambit of Capability Enhanced Program. The speaker was Mr Karan Babbar, Assistant TPO, TIAS, as Resource Person and Dr. Nivedita, Head Training and Placement Cell, TIAS

	The resource person Mr Karan Babbar shared that extempore doesn't require scripted presentations as it requires a strong foundation in various subjects allows you to draw upon relevant knowledge when presented with a new topic. The only thing that allows excelling in Extempore is by staying informed about current affairs which allow you to incorporate relevant examples and perspectives into your extempore speeches. In extempore activities, successfully delivering extemporaneous speeches can significantly boost your confidence and self-esteem which you learn to think quickly and communicate effectively under pressure. Extempore speaking fosters critical thinking, communication, research, and personal development skills that can benefit you in academic settings, professional careers, and everyday interactions. Lastly, the resource person stated that regular extempore practice improves your fluency and confidence in public speaking situations. Students learn to express clearly and concisely, even without extensive prior preparation. And helps you adapt your communication style to different audiences and situations.
