Objectives of the Seminar:

- To showcase global innovative practices in education.
- To foster international collaboration among educators and policymakers.
- To discuss challenges and solutions in implementing innovative education worldwide.
- To explore the role of technology in shaping the future of education.

Introduction to the Event:

The Seminar on Global Innovative Educational Practices, held on 4th September 2019 at TIAS, UG Classroom, drawing students of BBA and MBA related to educators, policymakers, researchers, and innovators from around the globe. The seminar aimed to foster discussions on the latest educational trends, innovative practices, and the future of learning in a rapidly changing world.

Keynote Speakers: Dr. Sandeep Kumar-Professor, Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Delhi

- Workshops: Workshops were a core component of the seminar, with topics ranging from "Integrating AI in Classroom Learning" to "Design Thinking in Education." These interactive sessions allowed participants to engage directly with new methodologies and tools, facilitating hands-on learning experiences.
- Panel Discussions: A series of panel discussions brought together diverse perspectives on pressing topics, including "Bridging the Digital Divide in Education" and "Sustainable Education Practices for Global Challenges." These discussions underscored the importance of equity and sustainability in the evolution of educational practices.

Notable Innovations Presented:

• Virtual Reality in History Education: An immersive VR experience that transports students to historical events, enhancing engagement and understanding.

- AI-based Personalized Learning Platforms: These platforms use artificial intelligence to adapt learning content to each student's needs, optimizing learning outcomes.
- Global Classroom Projects: Initiatives that connect classrooms from different parts of the world, promoting cultural exchange and collaborative learning.

Learning Outcomes:

The seminar concluded with a collective acknowledgment of the critical role that innovation must play in addressing current and future educational challenges. Key outcomes included:

- The establishment of an international network of educators committed to innovation and collaboration.
- The initiation of pilot projects to test and implement innovative educational practices in diverse contexts.
- A call to action for policymakers to support and fund research in educational innovations.

Conclusion:

The Seminar on Global Innovative Educational Practices was a pivotal event, marking a step forward in reimagining education for the 21st century. It highlighted the need for continuous innovation, collaboration, and a focus on equity and sustainability in education. As participants returned to their work, they carried with them new ideas, connections, and a renewed commitment to transforming education in their own contexts.
