Learning Objectives

1. To promote general awareness among students about the current topics.
2. Stimulate creativity by challenging students to create compelling feature articles that effectively communicate complex concepts.
3. Participants will gain insight into the role of feature writing in political journalism, specifically in covering Lok Sabha elections.
4. Competitors will enhance their communication skills by effectively conveying complex ideas and information related to their topics in a clear, concise, and engaging manner.
5. Improve written communication skills by encouraging students to articulate their thoughts, ideas, and perspectives on how digital advancements are reshaping the country.

Report

Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, organized a feature writing competition where topics like 'Lok sabha elections, mental health in youngsters, and climate change were given on the spot.

The Event was spearheaded by the Literary Club of the Institute, under the guidance of Mr. Amit Sharma, and supported by student coordinators, Anjali and Naman Kumar.

The article writing competition was open to all students of the Institute. Participants were required to write original articles that addressed the theme in either hindi or english language, as per their choice.

Students put on their creative gloves and wrote some great compelling feature articles that reflected on the topics they chose respectively. Topics like 'Lok Sabha elections' and 'climate change' tested their general knowledge, whereas the topic 'mental health among youngsters' made them think deeper on this common issue.

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various departments. The articles showcased a wide range of perspectives, reflecting the depth of thought and creativity among the student community.

The dedication of the Literary Club, along with the guidance of Mr. Amit Sharma and the active involvement of student coordinators Anjali and Naman Kumar, played a crucial role in making this event impactful and bringing out the creativity within the students.
