Students participating in the JAM Competition on E-Waste Management

Report: Description

The ECO Club at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies hosted an engaging Just a Minute (JAM) competition focused on E-Waste Management on 2nd March 2024. The event aimed to raise awareness and foster innovative ideas among students regarding the pressing issue of electronic waste. Participants eloquently presented their perspectives on the importance of recycling, reducing, and reusing electronic devices to minimize environmental impact.

The competition featured insightful discussions on the lifecycle of electronic gadgets, the hazardous components of e-waste, and sustainable disposal methods. Judges were impressed by the depth of knowledge and passion displayed by the contestants, highlighting the significance of responsible consumerism in today's digital age. This initiative not only educated but also inspired attendees to take proactive steps towards a greener future. The event underscored Tecnia Institute's commitment
