Report: Description

On February 29th, 2024, the ECO Club of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized a comprehensive Awareness Campaign on Energy Conservation, aimed at educating and empowering the community to adopt energy-saving practices and contribute to a sustainable future.

The campaign kicked off with a poster making competition highlighting the importance of energy conservation, emphasizing how reducing energy consumption can mitigate climate change, lower carbon footprints, and conserve natural resources.

The students creatively expressed the importance of energy conservation. The winning entries were displayed across the campus serving as constant reminders of the campaign's message.

The ECO Club also launched a social media drive,
