Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

The workshop titled "Ethics and Integrity in Research" was organized by the Tecnica Institute of Advanced Studies, department of management science, Rohini to address the critical importance of ethical practices in academic research. The event aimed to equip participants with knowledge and strategies to navigate ethical challenges in research, emphasizing the significance of integrity in maintaining the credibility of academic work to raise awareness about ethical issues in research, particularly in biomedical and social sciences, to discuss strategies for preventing research misconduct and plagiarism and to explore the ethical challenges related to data privacy and security in research.

|---|---|
| | Mr. Amit Bharti answered questions from participants, encouraging an open dialogue about ethical dilemmas researchers may face and how to address them effectively Participants engaged in discussions about common forms of research misconduct, including data fabrication and plagiarism. Strategies for fostering a culture of integrity within research teams were shared, emphasizing the role of mentorship and institutional policies. This session focused on the ethical implications of data management, particularly in the context of big data and digital research. Best practices for ensuring data privacy and security were discussed, along with the importance of transparency in data handling. |
