REPORT

The Photo Feature Contest on the theme of "Utsav" was organized to celebrate the rich cultural diversity of India through captivating visuals. "Utsav" translates to "festival" in Hindi and embodies the spirit of joy, harmony, and community that characterizes traditional Indian festivals. The contest aimed to showcase the vibrant tapestry of festivals observed across different regions of India and their significance in fostering unity and cultural heritage.

Participants were invited to submit photographs that captured the essence of various festivals celebrated in India under the overarching theme of "Utsav." Entries were judged based on their ability to convey the spirit, emotions, and cultural significance of the festivals depicted. The judging panel comprised experts in photography, cultural studies, and event management.

Through captivating imagery and storytelling, the contest not only showcased the beauty of Indian festivals but also fostered cultural exchange, community engagement, and artistic expression. As a result, it played a significant role in promoting unity, diversity, and cultural pride among participants and viewers alike.
