Students with the local people after explaining Registration Process on Online Voting App

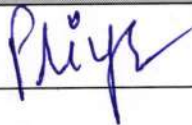

Faculty members asking for queries after explaining the procedure of registration

Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

On March 29, 2022, Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized an assistance program on Registration Process on Online Voter App at Bhalswa Dairy to educate the community about the registration process on an online voter App. As digital platforms increasingly play a role in democratic processes, this event aimed to equip participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to register for and use online voter's app effectively. The camp was structured to provide both theoretical and practical insights which included a comprehensive introduction to the concept, a live demonstration of the registration process, and interactive sessions where participants could practice registering on the app with the help of the volunteer students'. An interactive session followed the demonstration, allowing participants to ask questions about the registration process, app security, and usability. The session also addressed common concerns, such as data privacy and technical difficulties, helping to
