Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*	Aagahaz 24, a Nukkad Natak competition held during Taarangana at Indira Gandhi Delhi Technical University for Women on 23rd - 24th February 2024, showcased outstanding performances from various institutions. TIAS, led by Dolly Chawla, secured the 1st position with their powerful and thought-provoking street play. The Natak, in “Aagahaz,” focused on gender equality and women’s empowerment, touching on critical issues such as gender discrimination, societal expectations, and the need for collective responsibility in achieving equality. The play used a mix of humor, drama, and impactful dialogues to convey its message, leaving a lasting

	impression on the audience. The actors from TIAS demonstrated exceptional coordination, delivering strong performances that were both entertaining and educational. The minimal use of props and reliance on dynamic acting highlighted their creativity and ability to capture the audience's attention. The interactive nature of the Natak allowed for active audience participation, making the performance even more engaging and impactful. Judges praised the team's ability to raise awareness about pressing gender issues through a creative medium. The team was recognized not only for their performance but also for their ability to inspire reflection and action among the viewers. Winning 1st place at Aagahaz 24 further solidified TIAS's reputation for excellence in the performing arts, particularly in using theatre to advocate for social justice and gender equality.
