Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*	The Street Play event at Anugoonj 2023-2024, Prelims for Zone III, was a highly anticipated competition hosted by the Fairfield Institute of Management and Technology (FIMT) at Talkatora Stadium, New Delhi, from 8th to 10th October 2023. This annual cultural fest brings together students from across the region, allowing them to showcase their talents in various cultural activities. The preliminary round of the Street Play competition saw enthusiastic participation from several colleges, with the students of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies (TIAS) emerging victorious. The street play, titled "Breaking the Silence," was performed by a team from TIAS, led by Dolly Chawla. The play focused on creating awareness around mental health issues, particularly the stigma associated with seeking help. Through powerful dialogue, compelling characters, and emotive performances, the play encouraged the audience to break societal taboos and be more open about discussing mental health. The performance stood out for its seamless coordination, impactful script, and energetic execution. The creative use of space and audience interaction added to the authenticity of the performance. The students used minimal props and

	relied heavily on their voice modulation, body language, and expressions to drive the message home. Their ability to convey deep social issues in a simple yet engaging manner was applauded by both the judges and the audience. The event was judged by a panel of experienced theater practitioners, who commended the students for their creativity and social consciousness. TIAS secured the 1st position in the competition, with the team leader, Dolly Chawla, receiving special recognition for her outstanding leadership and performance. The play not only demonstrated the students' theatrical skills but also reflected their commitment to addressing important social issues through art. The learning outcomes of the event were evident in the team's ability to work collaboratively under pressure, develop public speaking and performance skills, and convey a meaningful social message. The event fostered a sense of empathy among the participants, who explored the nuances of mental health in a socially responsible manner. This achievement has set a high standard for the upcoming final round of Anugoonj 2023-2024, and the team looks forward to continuing their winning streak in the main event.
