Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*	Abhivyakti-2024, the annual cultural festival of Bharti College, University of Delhi, hosted its highly competitive street play competition, Tamashebaazi-24, on the 14th and 15th of March 2024. The event brought together talented theatre teams from across Delhi to showcase their performances and raise awareness about pertinent social issues. Among the standout performances was the street play by Mridang Theatre Society of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies (TIAS), led by Shivang Misra, which secured 1st position. The street play performed by Team Mridang, TIAS focused on the condition of widows in India and women empowerment, touching on critical issues such as discrimination faced by widows, societal expectations, and the need for collective responsibility in achieving equality. The play used a mix of humor, drama, and impactful dialogues to convey its message, leaving a lasting impression on the audience. The actors from Mridang Theatre Society, TIAS demonstrated exceptional coordination, delivering strong performances that were both entertaining and educational. The minimal use of props and reliance on dynamic acting highlighted their creativity and ability to capture the audience's attention. The interactive nature of the Natak allowed for active audience participation, making the performance even more engaging and impactful. Judges praised the team's ability to raise awareness about pressing gender issues through a creative medium. The team was recognized not only for their performance but also for their ability to inspire reflection and action among the viewers. Tamashebaazi-24 was an important platform that highlighted the potential of theatre to create a meaningful dialogue around societal challenges. Mridang's performance stood out for its artistic excellence and the depth of its social commentary. The team's victory in the competition is a testament to their hard work, creativity, and dedication to using theatre as a medium for positive social impact.
