The successful conclusion of the session's cultural activities was attributed to the enthusiasm, dedication, and teamwork of all involved members. These activities significantly contributed to fostering values such as gratitude, sharing, caring, and a positive outlook. They also promoted a healthy mindset and skill development among participants, enhancing both individual growth and the institution's cultural ethos.

A detailed report on the cultural activities conducted during the session 2023-2024 was presented to the house for appraisal.

2. Planning Cultural Activities for the Academic Session 2024-2025

The Cultural Club outlined the agenda for the upcoming academic session 2024-2025:

- Finalization of cultural activities to be conducted throughout the year.
- Encouragement of active student participation in all events, with a focus on preparing for the preliminaries of the University Annual Fest, Anugoonj.
- Development of an event calendar and distribution of activity responsibilities, including events to be conducted on and beyond the campus.

3. Miscellaneous Discussions

With the chairperson's permission, additional matters were discussed. All resolutions and minutes were presented to the institutional academic committee for final approval.

This strategic planning aims to ensure another year of enriching cultural experiences, fostering holistic development among students.
