Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

On 21st February 2024, Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized an assistance program on the "Registration Process on Voter App" at Bhalswa Dairy. The event aimed to educate participants about using digital platforms for voter registration and to facilitate a more streamlined and accessible registration process. The event commenced at 11:00 am with a brief introduction highlighting the importance of modernizing voter registration process through digital means. The session focused on providing practical guidance on how to use the voting app for efficient and accurate voter registration. A detailed presentation was conducted to introduce the features of the voter app. This included step-by-step instructions on how to download, install, and navigate the app, as well as how to complete the voter registration process online. A live demonstration showcased the entire registration process on the app. Participants were guided through the app's interface, from creating an account to submitting the necessary documents and information for voter registration. The program on the "Registration Process on Voter App" was a success, providing valuable insights and practical guidance on modernizing voter registration through digital means. Participants left with a clear
