PREFACE

The NSS Club's activities this year reflected a strong commitment to social responsibility, inclusiveness, and sustainability, aligning with the principles of Mulya Pravah and the United Nation Sustainable Development Goals (UNSDGs). Through various impactful initiatives, the club encouraged students to actively engage with societal and environmental issues, fostering empathy and values that contribute to a harmonious and sustainable future. In alignment Goal 16: Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions promoted national unity, cultural diversity, and democratic values. Environmental and community welfare efforts, aligned with Goal 11: Sustainable Cities and Communities & Goal 13: Climate Action, featured cleanliness drives, tree plantations, and sustainability-focused programs. Educational empowerment and advocacy were also emphasized through initiatives which encouraged student advocacy. Furthermore, under Goal 6: Clean Water and Sanitation & Goal 3: Good Health and Well-being, community outreach programs and resource distribution drives focused on improving rural health and sanitation.

Additionally, the principles of the National Service Scheme (NSS), rooted in inclusivity and respect, serve as a guiding force in our approach. These core values emphasize community solidarity, collective responsibility, and mutual care, all of which are crucial in addressing social inequalities and fostering a sense of national service among students. Through various initiatives, the NSS Club continues to inspire and empower individuals to contribute meaningfully to society, reinforcing its commitment to a just, inclusive, and sustainable future.

The club collaborated with key partners like the Eco Club, Red Ribbon Club, and government initiatives to amplify the impact of these activities, reinforcing integrity, respectfulness, and sustainability. Through these initiatives, the NSS Club continues to empower students as responsible global citizens dedicated to a better future.

This report highlights the initiatives, challenges, and successes of the NSS Club over the past year, carried out in five adopted villages of the institute, detailing our contributions to the achievement of various UNSDGs. Through our continued engagement with the principles of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan, we are striving for a world where social responsibility, inclusivity, and sustainability are not just ideals, but the foundation for a more just, empowered, and progressive society for all.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME CLUB

The National Service Scheme (NSS), a Central Sector Scheme under the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India, was inaugurated in 1969 during Gandhi Ji's Centenary Year. The scheme offers students at the technical, graduate, and post-graduate levels an opportunity to gain hands-on experience by participating in government-led community service programs. Since its inception, the NSS has gained significant momentum at the institute, empowering students to contribute meaningfully to society while developing a sense of social responsibility and leadership.

The NSS symbol is embossed on the NSS badge. The NSS badge is based on signifying the progressive movement in life across time and space, cycle of life, having 8 bars signifies the 24 hours of a day, reminding the wearer to be ready for the service of the nation round the clock. The symbol thus stands for continuity as well as change and implies the continuous striving of NSS for social change, transformation and upliftment. The NSS youth volunteers who opt to serve the nation through the NSS led community service wear the NSS badge with pride and a sense of responsibility towards helping needy.

Before the start of any event or activity, NSS volunteers come together to take a heartfelt pledge, symbolizing their unwavering commitment to the values of the National Service Scheme. With sincerity and a shared sense of purpose, they pledge to dedicate themselves to selfless service, upholding the principles of equality, unity, and social responsibility. This solemn moment not only reinforces their dedication to community welfare but also inspires them to approach every initiative with compassion, integrity, and discipline. The pledge acts as a powerful reminder of their collective mission to create a positive and lasting impact on society.

The motto of National Service Scheme is NOT ME BUT YOU

All NSS volunteers are encouraged to learn and sing the NSS theme song during programs and celebrations. The theme song is readily available for practice and reference.

National Service Scheme has been established in TIAS as per the directions issued by NSS Regional Centre, Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Govt. of India, GOI vide letter No. F.No .P-14/1/2016-17/NSS/RD dt 5 May, 2016 to undertake innovative activities (Annexure 1).

1.2 OBJECTIVES

The broad mandate of a National Service Scheme is –

- 1) Cultivate a sense of responsibility through active community service.
- 2) Foster connections with local communities to address their challenges.
- 3) Promote environmental conservation and sustainable practices.
- 4) Enhance leadership, teamwork, and problem-solving skills.
- 5) Raise awareness about critical social issues for a more inclusive society

1.3 NSS OUTCOMES

The National Service Scheme will be able to-

- 1) Reinforced values of social responsibility, inclusiveness, and sustainability.
- 2) Engaging students and communities in eco-friendly practices.
- 3) Inspired young minds to engage in nation-building and sustainable development, fostering responsible global citizens.

2. REPORTS ON EVENTS CONDUCTED

2.1 EVENT: Outreach

Topic: Meri Maati Mera Desh, National Awareness event by Government

Date: 31st October 2023

Objective: Students were provided with an opportunity to understand the importance of government campaigns in country like India

Report: On the occasion of Meri Maati Mera Desh, celebrated on 31st October 2023, the NSS cell of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Rohini actively participated in this significant national event. Organized at a national level by the Government of India, the event aimed to deepen the understanding of India's rich heritage, foster a sense of patriotism, and highlight the critical importance of our land, or "maati," in the nation's identity and growth.

The students of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies attended the event with great enthusiasm and dedication, eager to learn more about the nation's cultural roots and the values that unify the country. Their active participation was a cornerstone in making the event successful and meaningful. The program offered a platform for discussions on various crucial themes, including the significance of soil in India's cultural and agricultural fabric, the importance of unity in a diverse nation, and how these elements contribute to the country's development and progress.

The students of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies demonstrated their enthusiasm by engaging in various activities during the event. They listened attentively to speeches, participated in interactive discussions, and shared their perspectives on how they, as individuals and as part of the youth population, can contribute to national progress. Their involvement reflected their commitment to the ideals of the event and showcased their awareness of the nation's needs and aspirations.

Prime Minister Modi also encouraged the younger generation to take pride in their heritage and contribute actively to the nation's growth. He highlighted the role of events like Meri Maati Mera Desh in bridging the gap between citizens and their cultural roots, thereby fostering a sense of unity and belonging among people from all walks of life.

The event succeeded in generating widespread awareness among various sectors, including educational institutions, government bodies, and civil society organizations. By involving these diverse groups, Meri Maati Mera Desh aimed to create a ripple effect, encouraging every Indian to recognize their responsibility towards the nation. The collaborative efforts of these organizations underscored the importance of collective action in addressing national challenges and achieving sustainable growth.

2.3 Event: Group Discussion

Topic: Human Rights

Event Date: 24th November 2023

Objective: Students were made aware of the basic human rights that our constitution gives every citizen irrespective of caste, creed, religion, gender, etc.

Report: On occasion of Constitution Day of India, which was on 24th November 2023, NSS cell, Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Rohini had organized a Group Discussion on the topic “Human Rights” on 24th November, 2023.

The students of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Rohini were given the opportunity to express their thoughts and ideas freely. Our discussion emphasized the proactive role of citizens in upholding human rights. Students shared insights on the significance of civic awareness, engagement, and advocacy in fostering a rights-respecting society.

The power of social media was also discussed as a tool for citizens to contribute to the protection and promotion of human rights. The discussion commenced with an exploration of how human rights are embedded in the Indian Constitution. Students highlighted key provisions such as the Right to Equality, Right to Freedom, and Right to Constitutional Remedies, emphasizing their foundational role in safeguarding the dignity and freedoms of every citizen.

Our group discussion on Constitution Day served as a platform for a brief exploration of human rights in India and how inequality is existing boldly. From understanding the constitutional foundations to acknowledging contemporary challenges, students actively engaged in a conversation that underscored the ongoing journey towards ensuring dignity, equality, and justice for all. As we celebrated Constitution Day, our collective commitment to upholding human rights emerged as a shared responsibility, reinforcing the enduring values enshrined in the Indian Constitution.

2.4 Event: Slogan Writing

Topic: Matrabhasha diwas

Event Date: 21st February 2024

Objective: The role of mother languages in effective teaching and learning, leading to improved educational outcomes and cognitive development

Report: On occasion of Matrabhasha Diwas which was on 21st February 2024, NSS Cell, Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Rohini had organized a Debate on the topic “Matrabhasha diwas”.

Matrabhasha Diwas plays a significant role in promoting linguistic diversity, preserving cultural heritage, fostering inclusivity, and enhancing communication and understanding among individuals and communities. Matrabhasha Diwas can promote linguistic diversity in education. Recognizing and using mother languages in educational settings can enhance learning outcomes by enabling students to better understand and engage with the curriculum also promotes inclusivity by recognizing the linguistic rights of all individuals, including linguistic minorities. It helps in creating a more inclusive society where people feel valued irrespective of their language background.

The Matrabhasha Slogan Writing Competition was held at Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies on 21st February 2024 as part of our ongoing efforts to promote linguistic diversity and cultural awareness. The competition aimed to provide students with a platform to express their creativity while emphasizing the significance of mother languages. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various disciplines. Participants were tasked with crafting slogans that celebrated the importance of mother tongues, highlighted the beauty of linguistic diversity, and advocated for the preservation of indigenous languages. The competition showcased a wide range of perspectives and insights into the importance of mother languages in shaping cultural identity and fostering inclusivity.

Matrabhasha Diwas recognizes the importance of preserving and promoting mother tongues, which are often under threat due to globalization and the dominance of major languages. By celebrating Matrabhasha Diwas, societies reaffirm their commitment to linguistic diversity and the rights of linguistic minorities.

2.5 Event: Outreach Campaign

Topic: Invest in her Education, Empower the Nation

Event Date: 29 November 2023

Objective: Cultivate awareness of global issues and the interconnectedness of the world, empowering girls to be responsible global citizens and agents of positive change.

Report: On a mission to emphasize the transformative power of educating girls, the NSS unit organized an impactful awareness program titled "Invest in Her Education, Empower the Nation" at Fatehpur Jat village. This event, held on 19th September 2022, brought together community members, educators, and local leaders to discuss the profound societal, economic, and cultural benefits of investing in girls' education. With 8 dedicated NSS volunteers spearheading the initiative, the program aimed to inspire collective action to overcome barriers to education for girls and encourage the community to view education as a tool for empowerment and national progress.

The program commenced at 11:00 AM, with the NSS volunteers warmly welcoming the villagers and outlining the objectives of the event. The theme, "Invest in Her Education, Empower the Nation," was introduced with an emphasis on how educating women leads to widespread benefits, including improved health, economic stability, and gender equality. The volunteers explained that when girls are educated, they contribute not only to their families but also to the broader community, fostering progress and prosperity for the entire nation. This opening session set the tone for the day, inspiring the attendees to actively participate in the discussions and activities.

The first session was an interactive talk that addressed the barriers preventing girls from accessing education, particularly in rural areas like Fatehpur Jat. These barriers include financial difficulties, societal norms, lack of infrastructure, and early marriages. The NSS volunteers used real-life examples and research data to illustrate the long-term consequences of denying education to girls, such as perpetuating poverty cycles and limiting economic growth. They also shared inspiring success stories of women who overcame these challenges to pursue education and make significant contributions to society. This session encouraged parents to see the value of educating their daughters and inspired girls in the audience to dream bigger.

The volunteers followed this with a community workshop designed to brainstorm solutions for increasing access to education for girls. Participants, including parents, educators, and local leaders, were divided into small groups to discuss practical steps that could be implemented in their village. Suggestions included advocating for scholarships, creating mentorship programs for girls, and raising awareness about government schemes supporting women's education. The workshop also focused on the importance of involving boys and men in the conversation, emphasizing that gender equality in education benefits everyone.

2.6 Event: Campaign

Topic: Cleanliness Drive

Event Date: 22nd September 2023

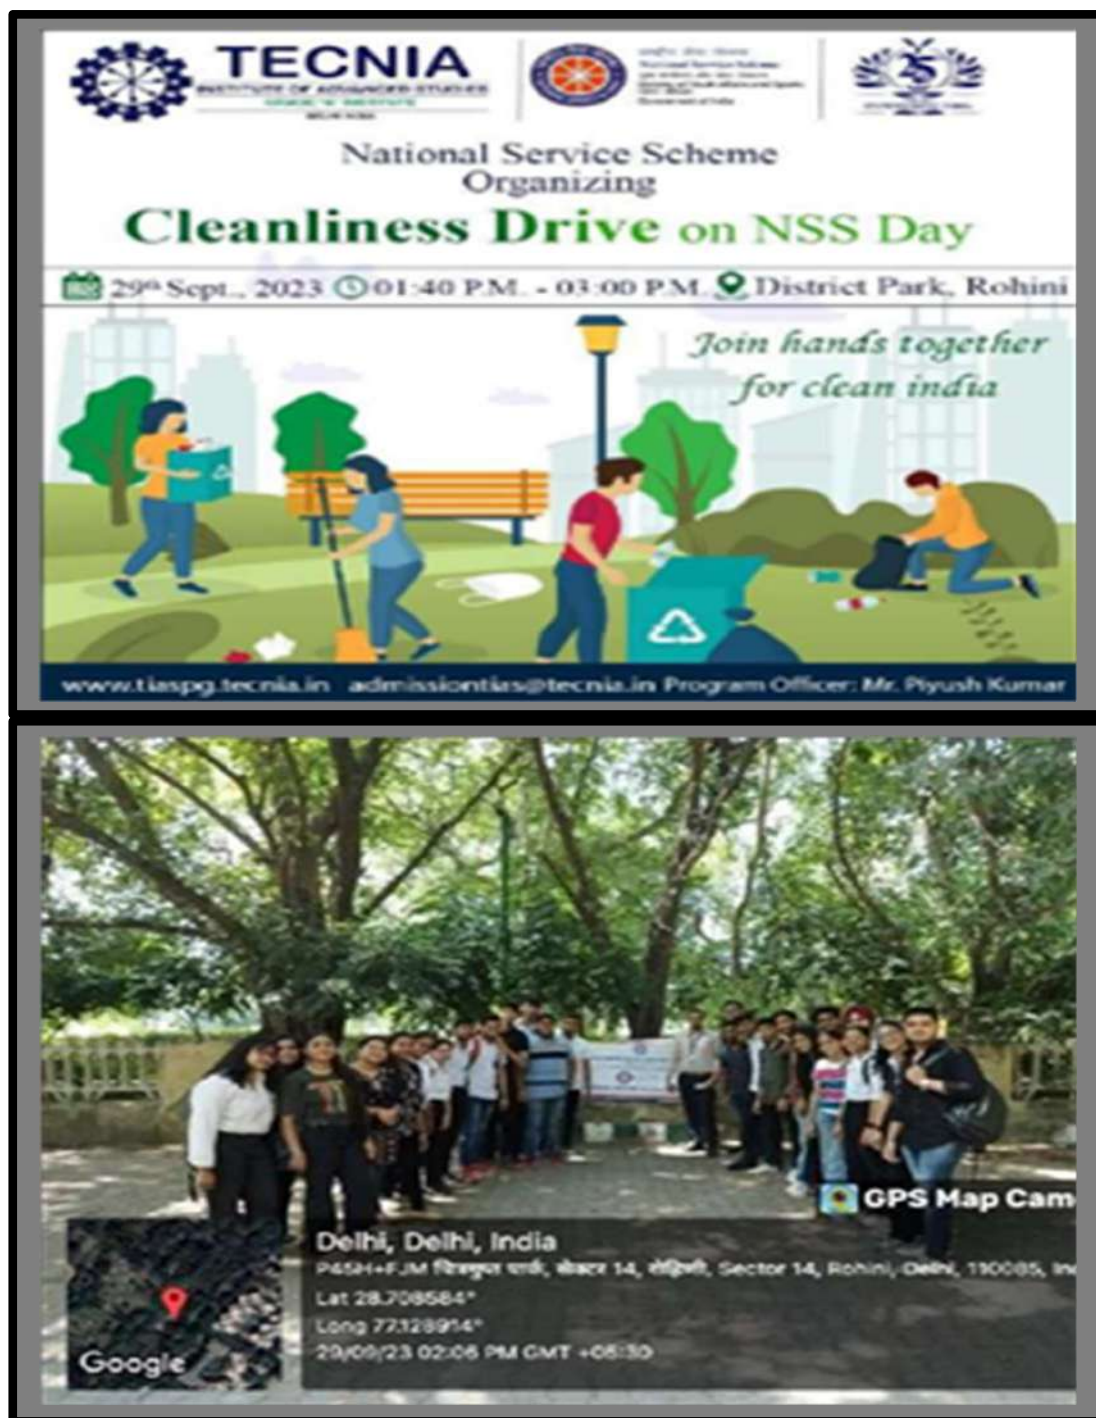

Objective: Students were made mindful to elevate the nature of the living climate through dynamic planting and a forestation.

Report: On occasion of NSS Day which was on 22nd September 2023, NSS cell, Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Rohini had organized Cleanliness Drive on 29th September, 2023. World Environment Day is noticed every year on June fifth and advances environmental mindfulness and activity. It is upheld by various nongovernmental associations, endeavours, and government offices, and it is the major Joined Countries environmental effort day.

It has given a setting to bringing issues to light on environmental worries like marine contamination, overpopulation, an unnatural weather change, practical turn of events, and untamed life wrongdoing since its origin in 1973. World Environment Day is a worldwide scene for public effort, with north of 143 countries taking an interest every year. Consistently, the program gives a subject and a spot for partnerships, non-benefit associations, networks, states, and famous people to lobby for environmental issues.

The World Environment Day subject for 2023 is "Answer for plastic contamination". An update individuals' activities on plastic contamination matters. The means state run administrations and organizations are taking to handle plastic contamination are the outcome of this activity. The time has come to speed up this activity and change to a roundabout economy

2.7 Event: Outreach

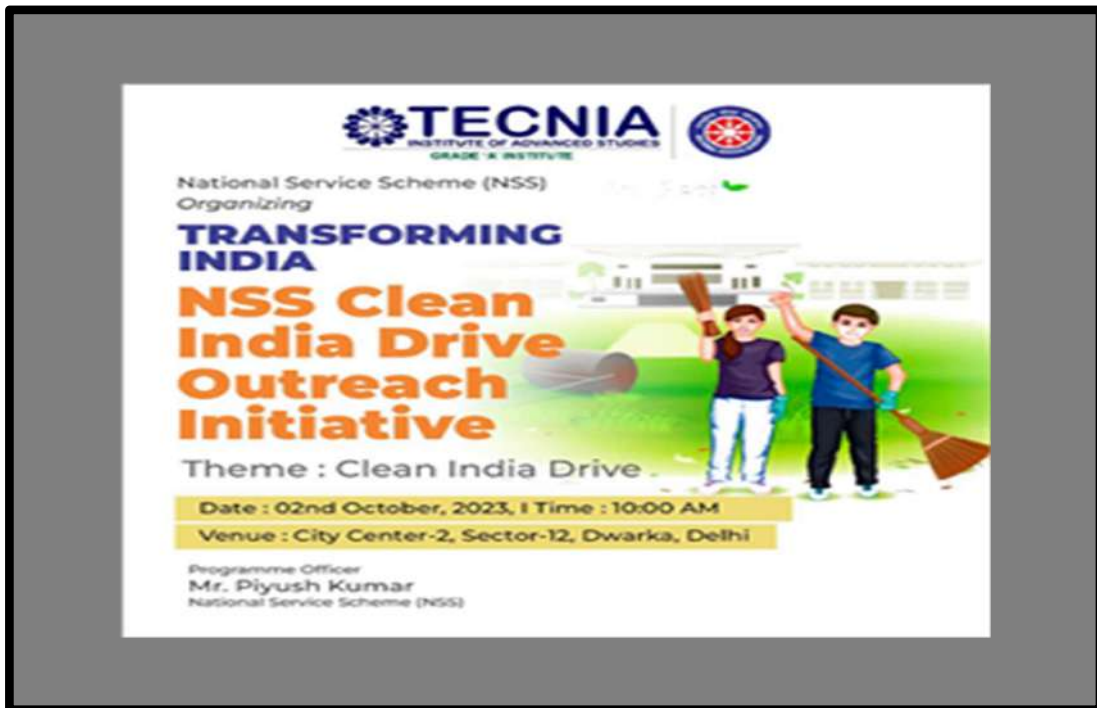

Topic: NSS Clean India Drive

Event Date: 2nd October 2023

Objective: To educate the community about the government's Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, its objectives, and how individual and collective efforts can contribute to the success of this mission.

Report: The National Service Scheme (NSS) of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies conducted an impactful outreach activity titled “Transforming India: Clean India Drive” on 2nd Oct 2023. This initiative, part of the larger Swachh Bharat Abhiyan (Clean India Mission), aimed to promote the importance of cleanliness and sanitation in the community. The activity encouraged participants to actively engage in cleaning efforts and foster a sense of responsibility towards maintaining a clean and green environment. The Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, launched by the Indian government in 2014, is a nationwide campaign aimed at improving sanitation and cleanliness across the country. This drive aligns with the vision of creating a cleaner, healthier, and more sustainable India. NSS volunteers led this initiative in their local community to highlight the importance of cleanliness for public health, environmental sustainability, and social well-being. The event began with a community clean-up drive, where NSS volunteers, students, and community residents gathered at designated local spots such as parks, streets, and public spaces. Armed with cleaning tools such as brooms, dustbins, gloves, and garbage bags, participants worked together to clean up areas that had accumulated waste, ensuring proper disposal of waste in designated bins. NSS volunteers designed and displayed banners, posters, and infographics across campus and local neighborhoods. These visuals carried messages like “Cleanliness is Next to Godliness,” “Waste Segregation Saves the Planet,” and “Say No to Plastic.” The purpose was to visually engage the community and spread awareness about cleanliness.

2.8 Event: Outreach

Topic: Reaching Out, Lifting Up: Essential Support for Communities in Need

Event Date: 7th October 2023

Objective: To Build stronger, more connected communities by encouraging mutual support, solidarity, and collective action during times of crisis

Report: A “Reaching Out, Lifting Up: Essential Support for Communities in Need” drive was organized by Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Rohini area of Delhi on 27th October 2023.

Welfare and Distribution: In the assigned areas, the participants provide promotional kits. give people with addiction information, resources, and encouragement in order to help them overcome their Basic survival, recover, and succeed in their recovery process.

Student Participation: Students from all departments actively participated, not only counselling them but also support them, "Reaching Out, Lifting Up: Essential Support for Communities in Need" is an initiative designed to provide critical resources to vulnerable communities facing challenges such as food insecurity, lack of healthcare, and basic necessities. The campaign focuses on delivering immediate relief while fostering long-term resilience through the distribution of essential supplies like food, clean water, hygiene products, and medical care. By prioritizing inclusivity and collaboration, it ensures that aid reaches all segments of society, particularly marginalized groups. The initiative aims to empower communities, restore dignity, and create sustainable solutions, ultimately working toward building stronger, more self-sufficient populations. Through collective action and partnerships, this campaign strives to uplift communities, fostering hope and laying the foundation for a brighter future.

The active involvement of students was a defining feature of this drive. Students from various departments came together to lend their time, skills, and compassion to the cause. Their participation went beyond the mere distribution of supplies. They engaged directly with the community, counselling individuals, listening to their stories, and offering moral support. Through their efforts, they fostered trust and understanding, creating an environment where people felt seen, valued, and supported. This hands-on engagement highlighted the role of young people as catalysts for positive change, showing how collective action can bring about meaningful improvements in society.

2.9 Event: Outreach

Topic: Healthy Village, Happy Village: The Health Mela

Event Date: 8th October 2023

Objective: Learners were exploring the various preventive healthcare measures, including regular health checkups, vaccinations, proper hygiene, and the importance of a balanced diet.

Report: The National Service Scheme (NSS) of TIAS organized The “Healthy Village, Happy Village: The Health Mela” was a comprehensive health outreach initiative organized by the NSS to address the healthcare challenges faced by rural communities. The program was designed to provide a range of free medical services, health education, and essential resources, with the goal of creating a healthier, happier village by fostering better health practices and increasing access to medical care.

The Mela included a variety of services such as general health checkups, eye exams, blood pressure screenings, and nutritional assessments. Villagers were given free medical consultations, with doctors providing immediate advice and referrals where necessary.

The health screenings helped in identifying common health issues like hypertension, diabetes, and vision problems, which often go undiagnosed in rural populations due to limited access to healthcare. By providing these services for free, the Health Mela bridged a crucial gap, ensuring that even the most underserved members of the community had the opportunity to receive medical attention.

In addition to the medical services, health education sessions played a vital role in raising awareness about important health topics. These sessions covered areas such as maternal and child health, personal hygiene, and nutrition, offering practical advice on how villagers could improve their overall well-being. For example, the importance of handwashing, safe drinking water, and proper sanitation was emphasized, as these practices are critical for preventing communicable diseases. Similarly, villagers were educated about maintaining a balanced diet rich in essential nutrients, with particular attention to the health needs of children and pregnant women.

2.10 Event: Outreach

Topic: A Campaign for Change, Dignity in every cycle

Event Date: 14th October 2023

Objective: Equip menstruating individuals with knowledge and resources to manage their health confidently

Report: On 14th October 2023, the NSS Unit organized an impactful event titled "A Campaign for Change: Dignity in Every Cycle" at Kham Pur Village. The primary aim of this campaign was to create awareness about menstrual health, promote hygiene practices, and break the stigma surrounding menstruation. The event was initiated to emphasize the importance of dignity for all menstruators, stressing that menstruation should not be a source of shame, but a natural biological process deserving of respect and understanding. The campaign was designed to encourage communities to break away from harmful taboos and to ensure that menstrual health became a subject that could be openly discussed, especially in rural settings like Kham Pur, where education and access to resources regarding menstrual health are often limited.

The event commenced at 10:00 AM, with the 10 NSS student volunteers leading the campaign. The volunteers had prepared a detailed agenda, which included educational sessions, interactive discussions, and myth-busting. The gathering began with an introductory speech by the volunteers, in which they explained the core objectives of the campaign. The theme, "Dignity in Every Cycle," was carefully chosen to highlight the importance of treating menstruation with the respect it deserves. The students emphasized how society often isolates menstruators, especially women and girls, due to taboos and misconceptions that surround menstruation. The volunteers also underlined that menstrual health should be a matter of empowerment, not something that leads to feelings of shame or embarrassment

Topic: Safe Streets, Happy tails

Event Date: 27th October 2023

Objective: Support sustainable solutions for animal welfare, such as education, adoption programs, and community involvement to ensure lasting improvements in street safety.

Report: A “Safe Streets, Happy Tails” drive was organized by Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Rohini area of Delhi on 27th October 2023.

Students from all departments actively participated, not only counselling them but also Safe Streets, Happy Tails is an initiative focused on ensuring the safety and well-being of both pets and people in urban environments. The program aims to create harmonious spaces where animals and residents coexist peacefully, promoting responsible pet ownership, reducing the stray animal population, and enhancing public awareness about animal welfare. Through collaboration with local authorities, animal shelters, and the community, the initiative works to implement safe practices such as leash laws, humane animal control, and educational campaigns. By fostering compassion and respect, Safe Streets, Happy Tails seeks to build safer, healthier neighborhoods where both animals and humans can thrive together.

Students played a pivotal role, contributing their skills and energy to address various aspects of animal welfare. From counselling residents about best practices for pet care to spreading awareness about humane treatment of stray animals, their involvement showcased the potential of youth in addressing critical urban issues. Through their collective efforts, the initiative became a platform for fostering empathy and building sustainable solutions for a more inclusive society.

Throughout the day, various activities reinforced these objectives. Interactive counselling sessions educated pet owners and residents on pet care, vaccinations, and the benefits of spaying and neutering. Educational campaigns utilized flyers, posters, and social media to spread awareness about animal welfare and encourage coexistence. Workshops and demonstrations by experts focused on humane animal control methods, first aid for animals, and handling conflicts involving stray animals. Additionally, collaboration with local shelters facilitated adoption drives and provided the public with ways to support stray animals effectively.

Student Participation: Students from all departments actively participated, not only counselling them but also assuming responsibility for their guidance. The students showed enthusiasm for their involvement in contributing to raising awareness about the intake of drugs and other hazardous substances, viewing this as a hands-on learning experience.

The "Addiction-Free Youth – Building a Better Tomorrow" campaign focuses on empowering young people to make informed, healthy decisions and live substance-free lives. By raising awareness about the dangers of addiction and promoting prevention strategies, the campaign equips youth with the knowledge and life skills necessary to resist peer pressure and cope with challenges without turning to drugs or alcohol. Through educational programs, community outreach, and peer support networks, the initiative fosters a culture of resilience, healthy living, and leadership among youth. The campaign also encourages community involvement, creating a supportive environment where young people can thrive. Ultimately, the campaign aims to inspire hope and build a better future for youth by providing the resources, skills, and inspiration needed to live addiction-free lives and contribute positively to their communities.

Topic: Say NO to Tobacco

Event Date: 31st May 2024

Objective: To educate participants about the harmful effects of tobacco use on health and well-being

Report: The National Service Scheme (NSS) of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized an impactful outreach activity titled "Say NO to Tobacco" on 31st May, aimed at alertness raising a about the harmful effects of tobacco consumption. The event was conducted in collaboration with local healthcare professionals, anti-tobacco organizations, and government health departments to address the growing concerns about tobacco use, especially among youth. The activity sought to educate the community about the severe health risks associated with smoking and other forms of tobacco use, encourage tobacco cessation, and promote a tobacco-free lifestyle.

The initiative was carried out with the vision to reduce tobacco consumption and empower individuals to make healthier choices. By utilizing interactive sessions, awareness campaigns, and peer education, the outreach activity emphasized the importance of saying NO to tobacco and fostering a healthier, smoke-free environment.

At the close, all participants were invited to take an anti-tobacco pledge, committing to a tobacco-free lifestyle. This symbolic gesture reinforced the personal responsibility of each individual to protect their own health and that of their community.

In collaboration with local schools and colleges, the NSS unit declared the surrounding educational campus a tobacco-free zone. Signs were placed around the campus, reminding students and staff that smoking and tobacco use were prohibited in these areas. This served as a step toward creating a healthier and safer environment for everyone.

2.14 Event: Workshop

Topic: Think Before You Drink, Choose Life Over DUI

Event Date: 5th June 2024

Objective: To enhance participants' understanding of critical environmental issues, such as climate change, biodiversity loss, and pollution.

Report: The National Service Scheme (NSS) of TIAS organized a crucial outreach activity titled "Think Before You Drink: Choose Life Over DUI" on 5th June. The primary objective of this initiative was to raise awareness about the dangers of Driving Under the Influence (DUI) and its devastating consequences on individuals and society. The event aimed to promote responsible drinking and highlight the life-threatening risks associated with impaired driving.

This outreach activity, supported by local law enforcement, healthcare professionals, and social activists, was designed to target youth, especially students, to educate them on the importance of making responsible choices when it comes to alcohol consumption and driving. Through engaging sessions, awareness drives, and interactive activities, the initiative sought to inspire long-term behavior change, focusing on preventing DUI-related accidents and promoting safe driving practices.

On June 5, 2023, the World Environment Day event was successfully hosted at the Pitampura Community Center in New Delhi. The choice of venue proved ideal for the event's diverse activities, which included educational workshops, interactive demonstrations, and community engagement initiatives. Located in Sector 17, Pitampura, the community center "The community clean-up drive was organized in a nearby park area, chosen for its need for attention and proximity to the venue, enabling participants to actively contribute to environmental conservation. Participant feedback was overwhelmingly positive.

Posters, banners, and flyers with anti-DUI messages were displayed around the campus and local areas. Social media campaigns with the hashtags. At the end of the event, participants took a pledge to be responsible in their drinking habits and committed to never driving under the influence. This pledge was symbolic of their dedication to safe driving and promoting responsible behaviors in their communities.

2 FUTURE PLANS

The NSS Club is committed to further advancing its mission of fostering social responsibility, inclusiveness, and sustainable development while aligning with global and national frameworks like the UNSDGs, Outcome-Based Education (OBE), and Mulya Pravahs. Our future plans focus on scaling up our impact through innovative initiatives, stronger community engagement, and continuous educational improvements.

1. Expanding Outreach Programs: We plan to extend our outreach efforts to more rural and underdeveloped areas, reaching a wider demographic. This includes organizing social responsibility workshops, awareness campaigns, and community dialogues that integrate local cultural practices to promote inclusiveness and active citizenship.
2. Partnerships and Collaborations: We will continue to strengthen partnerships with local NGOs, government agencies, and educational institutions to amplify our impact. Collaborations will help scale our initiatives, particularly those aligned with the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan and UNSDGs, ensuring broader societal transformation.

By building on these future plans, the NSS Club aims to continue its role as a key driver of social change, ensuring that inclusivity, sustainability, and community development remain at the core of its mission.

3 CONCLUSION

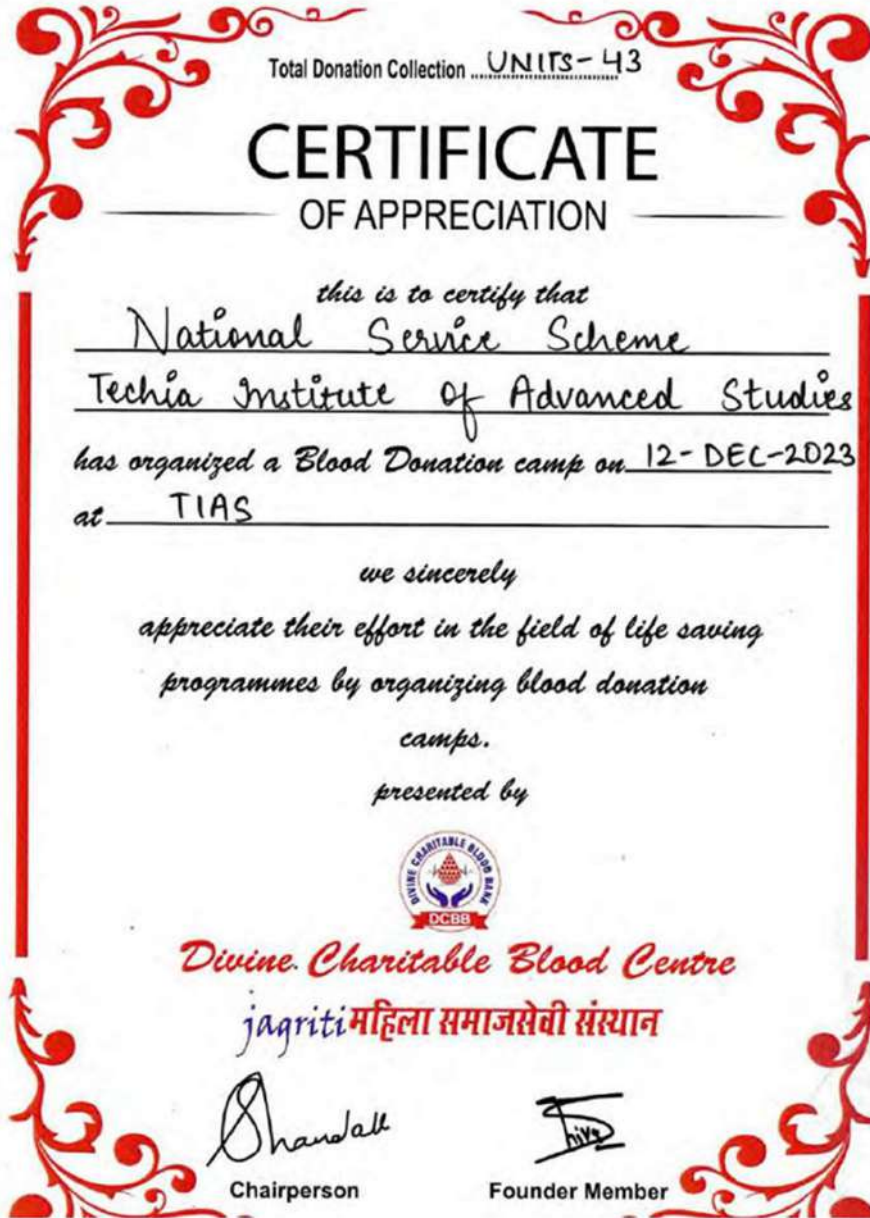

The NSS Club's activities for the year 2023-24 successfully addressed critical societal needs while fostering personal development and social responsibility. Through impactful initiatives rooted in Mulya Parvah, the club nurtured responsible citizens committed to national and global challenges, aligning with the SDGs.

Key initiatives promoted national awareness and inclusiveness through events like Meri Maati Mera Desh (SDG 11) and National Integration Day (SDG 16). Outreach programs such as Addiction-Free Youth and Invest in Her Education empowered communities, contributing to SDG 3 and SDG 5. Cleanliness drives on NSS Day and the NSS Clean India Drive reinforced civic responsibility (SDG 6 & SDG 13). Health and well-being initiatives, including Healthy Village, Happy Village and World AIDS Day Awareness, emphasized SDG 3, while Dignity in Every Cycle promoted inclusiveness (SDG 10).

The NSS Club also focused on fostering global citizenship and sustainability through initiatives like Safe Streets, Happy Tails and Say NO to Tobacco (SDG 12 & SDG 16). By integrating the principles of Mulya Parvah with meaningful action, the club successfully contributed to nation-building, community upliftment, and personal growth.

As we look ahead, the NSS Club remains committed to driving meaningful change and empowering communities through initiatives that promote equality, sustainability, and inclusiveness, building a better future in alignment with the SDGs.
