Theme: The untold stories

Film Fiesta, a celebration of student filmmaking talent! This year, we invite students from colleges across the city to participate in our festival, centered around the theme 'Untold Stories'. We encourage you to explore the uncharted, the unseen, and the unheard, and bring to life stories that have never been told.

We all have stories inside us, the ones we don't always share. 'The Untold Stories' is about bringing those stories to light. It's for the films that make you think, 'Wow, I've never seen that before,' or 'That's exactly how I felt!' We want to hear from the filmmakers who are passionate about showing us the real, messy, beautiful parts of life that often get overlooked. This festival is a place to connect with characters who feel like real people, to explore worlds we didn't know existed, and to remind ourselves that every single one of us has a story worth telling.

We invite you to submit your short films and documentaries, and our panel will select the best entries to be showcased at the festival.
