Happiness Club

A. Discussion on the Academic Session 2024-2025

The academic session of 2024-2025 was a dynamic and enriching year, filled with exploration and innovation. Throughout the year, the Happiness Club organized a diverse range of outreach activities and awareness campaigns aimed at educating students about environmental issues and their applications.

Outreach Events: Various outreach events were conducted on themes such as a winter clothes drive, books and stationery drive, and fruit and ice-cream. These initiatives provided participants with an opportunity to enhance their gratitude and give back to society.

Awareness Campaigns: Multiple campaigns were executed on campus to engage students and faculty in creating, celebrating, and nurturing happiness. Activities included a logo-making competition, a session on "Hacking Happiness Hormones," e-poster making, and a Happiness E-Campaign across social media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and YouTube.

The conclusion of this academic session marked a resounding success for the Happiness Club, made possible by the enthusiasm, dedication, and collaboration of all involved members. The club's activities significantly enriched the participants' sense of gratitude, sharing and caring, positive outlook, mental well-being, and overall skills, contributing to the institution's growth.

As we conclude this academic session, we eagerly look forward to the coming year, where we aim to build upon our successes and introduce even more innovative and exciting opportunities for all club members. A report of the Happiness Club's events has been uploaded to the website.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who supported and participated throughout the year. Let us continue to foster a spirit of curiosity, creativity, and exploration in the environmental domain.
