Report: Description in (min 250 to max 800 words)*

On 25th January 2023, the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Delhi, organized an English poem competition themed "Voices for Democracy" to commemorate National Voters' Day. This event aimed to encourage students to express their thoughts on democracy, civic engagement, and the importance of voting through the medium of poetry. The competition attracted participants from various colleges, showcasing their creativity and literary talent.

The event commenced at 10:00 AM in the Chief Electoral Office. Participants were given the opportunity to present their original poems, which reflected their perspectives on the democratic process, the significance of voting, and the role of citizens in shaping society. The atmosphere was filled with anticipation as students took to the stage to share their heartfelt compositions.

Naman Chawla from Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies (TIAS) delivered an exceptional performance that captivated both the judges and the audience. His poem not only showcased his literary prowess but also conveyed a powerful message about the impact of every vote in a democracy. The judges, comprised of eminent literary figures and educators, praised the participants for their creativity, depth, and understanding of the subject matter.

Throughout the event, the values of creativity, expression, and critical thinking were evident. Participants had the chance to refine their public

	speaking skills and gain confidence in presenting their work before an audience. The competition fostered a supportive environment, encouraging participants to appreciate the diverse interpretations of democracy expressed through poetry. The learning outcomes of the event were significant, as students left with a renewed understanding of their roles as active citizens. Many participants expressed how the experience inspired them to engage more deeply in societal issues and advocate for civic responsibility among their peers. Naman Chawla's outstanding performance earned him the 1st prize in the competition, further solidifying the reputation of TIAS in fostering artistic talent. The recognition not only highlighted his individual achievement but also showcased the institution's commitment to promoting creative expression and civic engagement. The event concluded with a closing ceremony where all participants were acknowledged for their efforts, and Naman was presented with a certificate and a prize. This competition not only served as a platform for literary expression but also reinforced the importance of democracy and active participation in the electoral process. Overall, the poem competition organized by the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer was a resounding success, inspiring students to reflect on their roles in a democratic society and encouraging them to express their thoughts creatively.
