The Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS) Cell of Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies organized a Seminar event titled "Abhimanyu's Legacy: Lessons of Sacrifice, Leadership, and Responsibility" on 1st February 2025. The event aimed to explore the profound lessons from the life of Abhimanyu, a heroic figure from the Indian epic Mahabharata, emphasizing

	values such as sacrifice, leadership, and responsibility. The event commenced at 12:00 PM with an introductory speech by Ms. Meenakshi Azad, who highlighted the importance of understanding and preserving Indian knowledge systems. This was followed by a captivating dramatic presentation by students, which vividly depicted key episodes from Abhimanyu's life, focusing on his bravery, strategic acumen, and ultimate sacrifice. Sh. Bimai Prasad Bahuguna, an expert in Indian Knowledge Systems, delivered an insightful lecture on the relevance of Abhimanyu's legacy in contemporary times. He elaborated on how the principles of leadership and responsibility demonstrated by Abhimanyu can be applied in modern-day scenarios, inspiring the audience to reflect on these timeless values. The event concluded with an interactive session where students and faculty members engaged in a discussion on the themes presented. The session was highly interactive, with participants sharing their perspectives on how the lessons from Abhimanyu's life can be integrated into personal and professional lives.

	Feedback: The event received positive feedback from participants, who appreciated the blend of Seminar and expert insights. The interactive session was particularly well-received, as it allowed for a deeper engagement with the themes discussed. Conclusion: The Seminar on Abhimanyu's legacy was a successful event that not only educated but also inspired the participants. The IKS Cell looks forward to organizing more such events to promote the rich heritage of Indian knowledge systems.
